Foreword

WE have endeavored to portray in this volume real "Snips and Cuts" of those phases of school life at Central High that will be of most value and pleasure in the coming years to all friends of old Central. We realize that as the years pass, our school days will seem happier and brighter, for time will take away the sting of all disappointments and failures. Therefore, that this volume may recall only the happiest and most pleasant memories is the sincere wish of the staff of the

SENIOR MASCOTS

HOPE GENEIVE HOSMER

"Gene"

THE daintiest of little girls is our petite mascot, Gene. Her long golden curls reflect the sunshine, and her deep blue eyes accent her happy smile. When Gene stepped upon the platform many youthful hearts in the breasts of the masculine candidates throbbed a bit more vigorously, and their feminine organ quickly executed a nose-dive. Gene, C. H. S. is proud to have your picture in her annual and in some future year may it be there as one of her loyal daughters.

NICHOLAS CORBIN SCHILTZ

"Nick"

NICK'S a whang! Hard boiled—ye gods! He's a man's man; a candidate of the boys, by the boys, for the boys, ably supported by the girls. He has the pep of Catherine, the vocabulary of Bill, and the good looks of Doug. With such a combination Nick is sure to be a winner. Nick is going to be a football player and follow in the footsteps of his brothers. We hope that C. H. S. will be fortunate enough to have his name enrolled in her hall of fame.

PERNETTE ELIZABETH ADAMS

"Pert"

Freshman Club, 1; Sewing Club, 1; Marshal, 3; Scribble and Scrawl, 3, 4; Dramatic Club, 3; Secretary and Treasurer Dramatic Club, 4; Glee Club, 4; Latin Club, 4; Treasurer of Home Room, 4; Secretary Entre Nous, 4.

"She walks in beauty, like the night of Cloudless climes, and starry skies;
And all that's best of dark and bright
Meet in her aspect, and her eyes."

With sympathy to make her lovable, grace to make her enviable, and that tiny dash of sarcasm to make her interesting—what more could the fairies have given Pernette?

DOROTHY RIDPATH AIKEN

"Dot"

Freshman Club, 1; Athletic Association, 1; Dramatic Club, 1, 3, 4; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Tennis Tournament.

"Smile, and I'll smile with you,
But weep, and you'll weep alone."

"Dot" seems to be always happy. She is never too busy to lend a sympathetic ear to every one's troubles, and her sunny disposition has won, and will always win, her many, many friends wherever she goes. Here's to you, Dot, may you always be as successful and happy as you are now.

EMILY ALEXANDER

Girls' High School Club, 2, 4; Camp Fire Girls, 1; Spanish Club, 3; Freshman Club, 1; Athletic Association 2.

"Mirth, admit me of thy crew."

Though little in stature, Emily holds a big place in our hearts. To the ones who know her best she is a most unselfish girl. She is always ready and willing to do her share. Here's to you, Emily; may you always get the most out of life.

MARTHA HELEN ALEXANDER

Literary Society, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Latin Club, 4.

"To know her is to love her."

Who can find a truer, sweeter friend than Helen? She is always ready to help whenever and wherever she can. She greets you with a bright, sunny smile wherever she meets you. Her greatest ambition is to be a missionary. May she attain her heart's desire and may our wishes go with her wherever she goes.

MARY BELLE ALEXANDER "Doll"

Economics Club, 1; Variety Club, 2; Commercial Club, 3, 4; Student Assembly, 4.

"Not too serious, not too gay;
But a good true friend in every way."

Mary is just the right sort of girl and her good characteristics have won for her many friends among her classmates. She is one on whom all can depend. Her worst horror is failing on her subjects, and this she never does. She is a favorite among the students of the commercial department. When in need of a real friend and one who can help you out, look Mary up.

MYRTLE EVELYN ALEXANDER

Literary Society, 1; Girls' High School Club, 1, 2; Commercial Club, 3, 4.

"And still they gazed, and still the wonder grew
That one small head could carry all she knew."

Myrtle is always bright and happy, always willing to do and dare. She is noted for her loving, free-hearted disposition, and is loved by all who know her.

NELLE LOUISE ALEXANDER

S. P. Q. R. Club, 4; Marchons, 3.

"She says what she thinks, and speaks it from her heart."

Nelle is a type of girl who is never fully appreciated until she is known intimately, but once her friendship is obtained she is a loyal pal. She has a winning personality and her willingness to help has won her many true friends. May it also bring her success in life.

SARAH ELIZABETH ALEXANDER
"Lib"

Sewing Club; Retail Salesmanship Club.

"The jolliest sort of a girl,
A friend to everyone."

Girls like "Lib" aren't found very often. Along with her good looks and sunny disposition is a little bit of mischief, which makes her a regular all-round pal. "Lib" will not let anything trouble her good spirits. Since the world is overrun with trouble, for pity's sake, let somebody be joyous all the time.

Charlotte Anderson

*Don't forget
"Hermie"
"Eysander"*

WILLIAM SUTTON ALEXANDER "Sutt"

Varsity Football, 4; Letter Club, 4; Baseball Squad, 3.

"With a smile that is catching, and a laugh that is gay, Through this weary old world, Sutt is winning his way."

Sutt is one of the most popular boys in High School. Why? Because he has that valuable gift, personality, along with mind and wit. He has made a name for himself by his hard, clean playing on the football team. We're sure that in the rough and tumble game of life "Sutt" will again prove to be that proverbial stone wall on the defense and greased lightning on the offense.

IDA WILLIAMS ALLISON "Ida Bill"

Athletic Association, 1; Melody Makers, 1; Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; President Glee Club, 4.

"As welcome as sunshine in every place,
So the beaming approach of a good-natured girl."

Ida always has a happy smile for everyone. She is carefree and full of the time. She is good in school, a good sport, and just an all-round good girl that we admire. When we see or think of Ida we always think of Georgie, her pal with the red, red hair.

CHARLOTTE BERNICE ANDERSON

Freshman Club, 1; Basketball Club, 1; French Club, 3, 4; S. P. Q. R. Club, 4; Glee Club, 4.

"Beneath a calm exterior
There lies a deal of deviltry."

Charlotte can play the piano beautifully and is really an accomplished musician. She looks rather solemn in the picture but she is altogether different when you get to know her, as the quotation insinuates. Charlotte also uses her vocal chords to the best advantage and is a prominent member of the Glee Club. The above mentioned and pictured young lady is the best of pals and her companionship is always enjoyable.

KATHRYN ARMSTRONG "Katie"

Athletic Association, 1; Dramatic Club, 1; Chairman Membership Committee Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Chairman Finance Committee G. H. S. C., 4.

"A comrade blithe and full of glee,
Who dares to laugh out loud and free."

Everyone knows curly-haired "Katie" for her jokes. No matter the time or the place she always has a joke to tell. Sometimes she calms down real low, but we love her most when she is in the highest of spirits. Kathryn can let fun alone when she wants to and make as high grades as anyone.

Please don't forget
"Louise"

IDA LOUISE AUSTIN
"Heft"

Freshman Club, 1; Literary Society, 1; Athletic Association, 2; Variety Club, 2; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Home Economics Club, 3; Civics Club, 4.

"An all-round maiden here you see,
And one as jolly as can be."

Louise is one of the sweetest and most sincere girls in our school. It is very seldom that we see her without a smile on her face. Her bright and sunny disposition has won a place for her in the hearts of us all.

THOMAS RICHARD BANKS

Radio Club, 1; Magazine Club, 1; Glee Club, 4.

"A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance."

Good natured Richard! He always has something to say that just breaks up class. Did we ever see him when he was not in a cheerful mood? We don't believe he knows how to frown. And what could mean more to an individual than a cheerful word and a smile?

But "Governor," as we call him, has something else besides a good nature to help him in life. He has a way of specializing on a work and carrying it to perfection. We think that if he keeps this up in his life's work, he has the essentials of success.

WILLIAM BASS
"Bill"

Civic Club, 1; Cannonball Vice-President, 3; Secretary and Treasurer Salesmanship Club, 4.

"A little nonsense now and then Is relished by the best of men."

"Bill" is a devilish sort. He is very popular and especially with Virginia (?). He is very neat in his clothes and appearance. Although not so large in size, he is around here when it comes to dancing. When you get him wound up, he is very witty.

VERGIE ELIZABETH BEAM
"Verg"

Hikers' Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 4; Girls' Reserve, 3.

"To make the world a friendly place
One must show it a friendly face."

Vergie is a girl that has many friends. Once her friend, always her friend. She is of a happy disposition and is either having fun or looking for fun. Nothing ever worries her; although she enjoys a good time, she keeps up with her studies and is a good student. We wish her success in life.

Mildred Beasley

MILDRED JANET BEASLEY
"Bibi"

Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4.

"It's the songs ye sing
And the smiles ye wear
That's a-making sunshine everywhere."

How many times have you smiled at Mildred just for the fun of watching her bring those fascinating dimples into play when she smiles back with a jolly smile and twinkles those mischievous blue eyes? The class of '25 wouldn't have been complete without Mildred's dimples;

WILLIAM BARNEY BEASLEY

Glee Club, 4; Wilsonian Literary Society, 4.

"Not too sober; not too gay;
But a real good fellow in every way."

Behold our newcomer! Barney dropped in on us from Raleigh High School. He was a little timid at first, but soon he joined in the sway of our school and made many friends. He has no special studies but is just good in all of them. Although Barney has been with us only a short time we will feel a loss when he leaves us.

ISABEL GENEVIEVE BEATLY
"Little-Bit"

Melody Makers' Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2; Athletic Association, 2; Home Economic Club, 3; Salesmanship Club, 4.

"She is cute, she is witty, she is pretty, it's true,
We wouldn't swap her for fifty like you."

In her face you see mischief lurking, the glow of youth, sweetness of disposition, and many other things that make up a darling girl. Her short, brown, curly hair and brown eyes are very appealing. Here's to "Little-Bit," a good dancer and swimmer. May you always be as full of pep and as cute as you are now.

THEO BELK
"Tee-Hee"

Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4, Captain, 2, 4; Girl Scout, 1, 2, 3; Camp Fire Girl, 1, 2, 3.

"Behind the innocent expression there lies a store of deviltry."

Theo has been with us only a short time, but as soon as she came to our high school, she won the hearts of us all.

On our basketball team she has no equal; she is also a fish in water, a wonderful dancer, and can make a piano talk. Here's wishing you the best of luck in future years.

Isabel Beatly

ALICE GORDON BELL
"Priss"

Freshman Girls' Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3; French Club, 3, 4; Sewing Club, 1; Scribble and Scrawl, 3, 4; Class Prophet, 4.

"Come and trip it as you go
On the light fantastic toe."

Alice is a very lovable girl. She has made many friends for life during her four years at high school. She has a quite original personality and is very talented in music and art. She is always full of pep and fun, and on the dance floor she is hard to beat. Alice is tall and slender and has the kind of eyes that seem to talk.

MILDRED JANETTE BIGGERS
"Milly"

Freshman Club, 1; Camp Fire Club, 1; Girls' Reserve, 1.

"With hair so black, and eyes so brown,
A friend so good and true."

It's hard to decide just whether "wholesome" or "sweet" is the term applied to Mildred. Suppose you decide for yourself! She's the happiest, most companionable person imaginable. She can be frivolous when the time comes, but we love her best when her big brown eyes soften with sympathy. "Milly" can be gay, or serious, laugh or cry, sympathize or blame—that depends entirely on you and whether or not you are at fault. When you are happy, Mildred is too, if you are pensive, why, her mood just naturally turns that same way. She adapts herself to any climate, place, or person. Have you decided on the term? We know more than one!

ALSE VAIDEN BLANKENSHIP

Current Event Club, 2; Student Council, 4; Wilsonian Literary Society, 4; Rambler Staff, 4; Debating Team, 4; Hi-Y, 4; Vice-President Senior Class, 4; Vice-President Student Council (Second Semester), 4.

"A strong man
For where he fixed his heart he set his hand
To do the thing he willed, and bore it through."

Alse is an exceptional student. He always knows his lessons and the teachers trust him in all he does. He is cheerful and always ready to help the fellow who does not understand.

MABEL EVANS BOSTIC
"Mab"

Gibson, North Carolina, High School, 1, 2; Glee Club, 4.

"It's the songs ye sing
And the smiles ye wear
That's a-making sunshine everywhere."

We consider ourselves very fortunate in having "Mab" with us even for two years. She has a loving disposition and a sweet smile, with which she never fails to greet one; is very studious, sympathetic and unselfish; and always lends a helping hand when one is in need of a friend. "Mab" has won a host of friends in Central High. She is very fond of reading and of sports.

NANNIE BENNETT BRASINGTON

"Nan"

Freshman Club, 1; Current Event Club, 2; Home Economics Club, 3; Girls' High School Club, 3, 4; Red Cross Council, 1.

"She is jolly, good-natured, and true,
And her share she is willing to do."

Nannie Bennett is indeed a true and loyal friend. If you want to find someone whom you can trust, you can count on Nannie Bennett. She has a cheerful disposition and is good-natured and sympathetic. Though she is a good student, she is not too studious to be jolly and fond of all sports.

ROBERTA WIDMAN BREWER

"Berta"

Freshman Club; Girls' High School Club; Marchions Club; Camp Fire Club.

"Her sunshine smile, and eyes of blue Clothe a nature loyal and true."

"Berta" is a true friend and always willing to lend a helping hand to those in trouble. The class of "'25" is glad to claim her as one of its most loyal members and predicts a truly successful future for her.

JAMES CLARENCE BRUMLEY

"Fat"

Salesmanship Club, 3; Magazine Club, 1.

"A man that hath friends must show himself friendly."

"Fat" is a good sort. He is always in for a good time. He is nice and fat, and has a "million dollar smile." The line which he slings is surely a hot one; the girls all fall for him. Talk about tall, he is about six feet and weighs more than 200.

ELIZABETH RANDOLPH PRESTON BRYAN

"Betty"

President Freshman Class, 1; Student Council, 2; Freshman Editor Snips and Cuts, 1; Melody Makers, 1; Basketball Squad, 1, 2; Basketball Varsity, 3, 4; Letter Club, 3, 4; Chief Marshal, 3; Annual Staff, 4; U. F. E.; B. Y. E.; R. O. T. C. Junior; Athletic Association, 1; Entre Nous, 4.

Wherever you navigate you're sure to hear this eager question poked in your auditory organ, "Do you know Betty?" And if you are one of the few unfortunates who don't . . . you certainly want to meet this unusual person. She possesses all the desired virtues and vices that make up an attractive girl and a worth-while companion. Find something that this versatile and lively Betty can't do in the way of athletics, dancing, singing—ahem—talking—ahem, and you will have found something that the rest of us have looked for in vain. Lastly, but not leastly, she is pretty—unusually pretty—and what's more—she's Nature's own and not "What she ain't by powder and paint."

LAURA ELIZABETH BUNN
"Brown Eyes"

Commercial Club, 3, 4; Girls' High School Club, 1, 2; Literary Society, 2; Civics Club, 4.

"Not too serious, not too gay,
But a good pal in every way."

A queer mixture of conscientiousness, fun, and knowledge. She can always be counted upon to do her duty, whatever it may be. Her cheerful disposition has won for her many friends and she is always looking on the bright side and wonders why everyone else does not do the same. As a friend she is loyal, true-hearted, and sincere.

FRANCES MYRTLE CARPENTER
"Moitle"

Literary Society, 1; Marchons Club, 3, 4; Girls' High School Club, 4; S. P. Q. R. Club, 4.

"She's as true as steel."

"Moitle" is a dyed-in-the-wool Georgia cracker, and the many school years she has spent in Charlotte have failed to change her ardent devotion to her native state. Yet, if pressed closely, she admits that Charlotte and the Old North State have won a high place in her affections; she, in turn, has won the affection of the class of '25. This quiet girl will leave many friends when she returns to Georgia.

HELEN MAY CARROLL
"Hully"

Freshman Club, 1; Choral Club, 1; Athletic Association, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Home Economics Club, 3.

"She's pretty to walk with,
Witty to talk with,
And pleasant to think on too."

"Hully" is a sweet, jolly girl, and she is also smart. In English she always brings up some difficult question for discussion, and in any argument, she is always in the right, even though most of the class is against her. After "Hully" has finished school she is sure to get along all right because of her frankness and sincerity.

MARY ELIZABETH CAUDLE
"Sister"

Literary Society, 1, 2; Commercial Club, 3, 4; Vice-President.

"Her happy disposition, her pleasant smile,
Have won her friends for many a mile."

Here's to the girl who has a smile for everyone. Mary is a sincere friend and she may be relied upon to do her best in any undertaking. We wish her the success that she so surely deserves.

Laura Elizabeth Bunn

Mildred Cave

MILDRED WADSWORTH CAVE "Mil"

Freshman Club, 1; Melody Makers, 1; Athletic Association, 1; Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Letter Club, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club, 3, 4; B. Y. E. Club, 4; Cheer Leader, 3, 4; Home Economics Club, 4; Student Council, 4.

Little Mildred Cave
Do you know her?
A very fickle little knave
Don't you think?
She's a darling little mouth, two very witchy eyes;
No doubt you've admired both—she appears very wise.
She's got gobs of fellows who don't know night from day,
For they're all in dark cellars into which she's led the way.
Perhaps you wonder, if you've given that much thought,
Who's the author of this page of blunders
That his unskilled pen has wrought.
I'll tell you—I'm a dweller
In her very darkest cellar, who never gives up hoping That some day
He'll be a "Fella."

DONALD HAYES CLEMENT "Dinty"

"Not too sober and not too gay
But a real good fellow in every way."

"Dinty" is one of those boys who came to us in his sophomore year from Baird's. Every one in old C. H. S. will always remember him as a real good fellow, not too studious and quiet, but one who could always hold the love of his fellow classmen.

KITTIE HADDON CLINKSCALES

Variety Club; Girls' High School Club; French Club; Home Economics Club.

"Speech is Silver, but Silence is Golden."

Kittie came to us in her Junior year from Clio, S. C., but she is now a loyal citizen of C. H. S. Her most admirable quality is modesty. If the Meek shall inherit the earth, Kittie will be their Queen. From her quiet manner, she might even be considered extremely reserved—I dare say—superior. Yet, when once her friendship is gained, you may count on her through thick and thin. She is also keen on out-door sports, especially swimming.

REBECCA OTRANTO CLONTS "Trana"

Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4.

"She says what she thinks and speaks it from her heart."

Otranto is indeed a true friend. She never refuses to help anyone, and you can always depend on her. She has a cheerful disposition, is good-natured and sympathetic. She is very industrious and tries to please every one. Her sunny disposition and willingness to help anyone, at any time, have won her many, many friends.

HELEN ADELINE COLYER

"Dick"

Freshman Club, 1; Short Story Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Spanish Club, 4; President Entre Nous, 4.

"Mirth, with thee I mean to live."

Helen has a never-ending desire for fun that is always bubbling up and causing much laughter among her companions. She is such jolly good company that you can't be solemn around her, not even if you try. But underneath her happy-go-lucky exterior lies sincerity, and good common sense that is sure to help her on Life's highway.

SALLY McADEN COTHRAN

Freshman Club, 1; Literary Society, 1; Class Basketball, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Advocate Staff, 1; Scribble and Scrawl, 3, 4; Marchons Club, 3; Chapel Program Committee, 4; Rambler Staff, 4; Wilsonian Literary Society, 4; Treasurer Society (Second Semester), 4; Home Economics Club, 4; S. P. Q. R., 4.

"Age cannot wither her, nor custom stale her infinite variety."

If we were asked to name a maid,
'Round whom our hopes would rally,
Who meets her duty unafraid,
We surely would choose Sally.

Her common sense and learning, too,
Make all her teachers ponder
If she should not be giving them
Some tasks to labor under.

She trips the light fantastic too,
Plays golf and tennis, too,
But riding ponies—when she stays on—
Is what she'd rather do.

PAUL KINGSTON COWHIG

Kodak Club, 1; Athletic Association, 1; Quenovalenada Club, 4; Track Team, 3, 4; Football, 4.

"The prince of good fellows."

Cowhig is a fellow with whom we never tire of associating. He has a personality which draws us to him and makes us like him at first sight. He is a good sport and takes great interest in all athletics. We are told he holds his own with the fair sex, also. In other words, he is a typical American fellow.

JEAN HICKLIN CRAIG

Freshman Club, 1; Athletic Association, 1; Sewing Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Scribble and Scrawl Club, 3, 4; Mele Club, 3; Secretary Home Room, 3; Home Economics Club, 3, 4; President Home Room, 4; Editor of Central High News in Observer, 4; Editor of G. H. S. C. Paper, 4; Secretary G. H. S. C., 4; Glee Club, 4; Student Assembly, 4; Vice-President Student Council, 4; Editor Rambler, 4; Entre Nous, 4; Secretary Senior Class, 4.

"Remember well, and bear in mind
That good true friends are hard to find,
And when you find one good and true
Change not the old friend for the new."

Once a friend of "Jean's," always a friend of hers. If you are one of her numerous friends, you are lucky. She is one of the most loved girls at High School. If there is anything real important to be done, just ask Jean; she'll do it and do it well. She is one of the most unselfish and thoughtful girls imaginable. By the way, have you ever noticed how she uses her eyes—when she talks?

IRENE GATES CRATER
"Rene"

Freshman Club, 1; Basketball Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 3, 4; S. P. Q. R. Club, 4.

"It's not because you're jolly and never
A trifle blue, it's not because you're pretty,
Tho' of course we know that's true;
But the reason we all love you is because you're you."

Look who's here. Don't you think she is beautiful and just too cute? And no wonder her cheery smile and winning personality make every one her friend. Truly she is the live wire of our class as well as the youngest member. Capable to the last notch and gifted with many talents, wherever she treads, success is sure to follow. "Rene," '25 is with you heart and soul. Au revoir but not farewell.

VIRGINIA LOULA CRATER
"Ginger"

Freshman Club; Girls' High School Club; Latin Club; Basketball Club.

"Courtesy is the eye which overlooks your friend's broken gateway,
But sees the rose which blossoms in her garden."

Yes, Virginia is full of "peps" and "Ginger," as her name implies. She is on the basketball team and is a good player. Her hobby is dancing, so we hope that she will always "keep fit." "Ginger" is a likable sort of girl and has many friends. Here's to you, Virginia, and we hope you will retain your ginger and push, for you will need them one of these days.

ELLEN BLANCHE CROWELL

Literary Society, 1; Girls' Reserve, 1; Girls' High School Club, 4; Basketball, 2; S. P. Q. R. Club, 4.

"She is jolly, good-natured, and true,
And her share she is willing to do."

Blanche is indeed a true friend. She has a cheerful disposition and is good-natured. She is a kind of girl we all love. Here's wishing her a success.

BERNICE MONTGOMERY CULLINGFORD
"Bunny"

Literary Society, 1, 2; Commercial Club, 3, 4.

"Although she is small—
Never hardly grew at all—
If she were not on the list,
She would then be sadly missed!"

Bernice is just a good, solid girl, possessing a store of common sense. Being a splendid student she, of course, makes good marks, and has thus laid a strong foundation for her work in the future. On this account we feel assured that she will make a success of the future. Bernice will always be remembered by her classmates of C. H. S. because of her kindly disposition, and her unselfishness.

PHILIP FRANCIS DAWSON
"Phil"

Cross Country Club, 1; Athletic Association, 2; Student Council, 2; Hi-Y, 3, 4; Secretary, 4; Spanish Club, 4; Wilsonian Literary Society, 4; Vice-President Society (Second Semester), 4; R. O. R. C., 4.

"The man that loves and laughs must sure do well."

When something happens to make us smile
We know by whom 'twas done,
For Phil leads others by a mile
When it comes to having fun.

From him old Gloom, the Spectre, flees;
His disposition's sunny,
But how he passes with such ease
To us is mighty funny.

From doing mischief he can turn,
And be so kind and true,
That any honors he may earn
In life will be his due.

MARY EMILY DeARMON
"M. E."

Freshman Club, 1; Sewing Club, 1; Athletic Association, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Chairman Program Committee of G. H. S. C., 4.

"None know her but to love her,
None name her but to praise."

"M. E.," as she is known to us, is a real, true, sincere friend. If you want anything done, and done well, go to her. "Dependable" should be her middle name, for you can always count on "M. E." to do her share and a little bit more too. Art is her specialty. But it is needless to say anything about this, for every one knows the talent she has along this line.

CATON GLENN DEDMONDT
"K."

Shelby High School, 1, 2; McNeil Literary Society, 1, 2; Charlotte High School, 3, 4; Commercial Club, 4.

"It's a wise man that keeps the world guessing."

Caton's just one of the nicest boys we know. Last year he came to us from Shelby, and, in coming, caused Shelby to lose and C. H. S. to gain. A good student and a firm friend, with his ability and dependability, he will make a success of the future. Good luck to you, Caton, and remember that the class of '25 is your friend to a man.

KATHERINE LULA DELLINGER
"Kat"

Girls' Reserve, 1; Etiquette Club, 1; Girls' Club, 2; Salesmanship Club, 4.

"It's the song ye sing and the smile ye wear That's making sunshine everywhere."

We like her heaps; in fact every one who knows her, likes her. She is just a little shy, and when it comes to making people stand around she knows how, but even with this she is sure a sweet ol' dear.

PAUL GRIER DELLINGER

Chemistry Club, 3.

"Still water flows deep."

Paul is a quiet, steady fellow who knows how to dig in and finish the job. He is always prepared for what comes, regardless. If looking for Paul, you will find him among "those to be depended on." He is the fellow who climbs slowly but surely to the top of the ladder.

NIDA ASHE DePASS

"Nidee"

President Sewing Club, 1; Melody Makers, 1; Athletic Association, 1; Vice-President Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Junior Observer Staff, 4; Ring and Pin Committee, 4; Entre Nous, 4.

"She is jolly, good-natured, and true,
And her share she is willing to do."

Nida, a meek little maiden to some, but with plenty of mischief behind that demureness, is loved by all her friends. She is one of the smartest girls in the Senior Class. Nida is always willing to help, and she pulls some of us out of the deepest of difficulties.

NANCY HOLT DICKINSON

"Nan"

Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 3.

"My Nannie's charmin', sweet, and young,
Nae artfu' wiles to win ye, O."

Nancy is loved by her friends, both teachers and students, for her sweet, willing manner. She is always ready to help others. She is a hard worker, and is not afraid of any of her studies.

FLOYD MARSHALL OWINGS DIXON

Orchestra and Glee Club, 4.

"Quiet, but industrious."

As a student Floyd is bright, eager and conscientious; as a boy he is friendly, courteous, sincere, and honorable. What more could one ask? Floyd's greatest ambition at the present is to be a lawyer but—you never can tell. No matter what his profession may be, the sterling qualities which he has shown in high school will secure success for him.

SARA ELIZABETH DODD

Freshman Club, 1; Girls' Club, 3, 4; Etiquette Club, 1; S. P. Q. R. Club, 4.

"She's petite, witty, and pretty too,
And we wouldn't swap her
For fifty like you."

Sara is a lovable girl, who possesses a winning personality and a wonderful faculty for brilliancy. She is good-natured, has a ready smile for every one, and is a girl you can depend upon. If you haven't gained her friendship, you have certainly missed something, for she is a pal most loyal and true.

HELEN BERNICE DOOLEY

"Midget"

Girls' Reserve, 1; Varsity Club, 1; Literary Society, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club, 1; French Club, 3; Freshman Club, 1; Student Council.

"The most precious articles come in smallest packages."

Yes, Helen is a "Midget," but she is "worth her small weight in gold." She is very musical and has a lovely voice. She has a disposition just as sweet as her voice, too. Helen has a piquant face and—well, she is just a sweet girl. Along with many other good qualities, are modesty and sincerity. We hope that she will always meet with success.

MARGARET SPRINGS DOWD

"Maggie"

Choral Club, 2; Girls' High School Club, 3, 4; Freshman Club, 1; Glee Club, 4; B. Y. E. Club, 4.

"Drink to me only with thine eyes."

Margaret is a happy-go-lucky girl who says, "I should worry, when things go wrong. She is pretty as well as witty and jolly. Margaret has beautiful eyes, and Oh, Boy! she surely can use 'em! If you haven't heard her sing, you've missed a treat! We have enjoyed knowing you, Margaret, and C. H. S. hates to say "Good-bye."

SAMUEL GRADY FARRIS

"Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait."

Grady possesses the art of building. He is ahead of most people for he knows how to use his hands as well as his head. Above all, friendship and humor are his chief assets, as are shown in his number of friends—not acquaintances.

WILLIAM PINCKNEY FINLEY
"P. W."

Spanish Club, 3; Naturalist Club, 1; Track Squad, 3, 4; Cheer Leader, 3; "M" Club, 3; Jew Derby, 2; Kodak Club, 2.

"The glaze of fashion, the mold of form;
The observed of all observers."

He's called P. W. by many, but those who know him best refer to him as the "Royal Vagabond." P. W. is a smooth-talking, even-tempered fellow, who wears his clothes like a model. He is a boy who can grace a drawing room or ball room floor with as much ease as old Chesterfield himself; he looks like a Matinee Idol, though in truth P. W. always cavorts at night. Anticipating the outcome of athletic events, he shoves Grantland Rice to the wall.

RISDEN SHERRILL FORT "Risen"

Cameron Morrison Literary Society, 1; Glee Club, 2, 3; Athletic Association, 3.

"Men of few words are the best men."

"Risen," like all other Seniors, reads only to be known to be liked. His calm, easy-going ways and his good sense of humor make for him a winning personality. He will undoubtedly make a success of whatever he chooses for his life work; that is, if he goes into it with the same determination and energy that have characterized him through his high school career.

LYDIA LAVINIA FOX
"Vinya"

Camp Fire Girls.

"I'll be glad, I'll be free,
I'll be sad for nobody."

Lavinia is one of those happy, gracious persons that we always like to be around. Her eyes possess that rare, radiant quality which is always attractive. Lavinia glows as well as her eyes shine, for she does good work in the class room. In fact Lavinia is an ideal, happy, all-around student.

CATHERINE ROY FRASER
"Kitty"

Freshman Club, 1; Magazine and Newspaper Club, 1; Literary and Debating Club, 2; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3; Associate Editor Rambler, 3, 4; Scribble and Scrawl, 3; Secretary Scribble and Scrawl, 4; Secretary Dramatic Club, 3; President Dramatic Club, 4; Home Economics, 4.

"Fair was she to behold, that maiden of eighteen summers
Black were her eyes as the berry that grows on The thorn by the wayside, black, yet how softly they gleamed,
Beneath the brown shade of her tresses."

Kitty is a breath of spring, a hint of lavender and yellowed lace; "deep dark eyes where pride demurs when pity would be softening through." Clouds and clouds of darkest hair; rainbow thoughts and unhinged tongue. She makes you glad that you're alive. Catherine is the "princess" in the fairy tale. And—oh! those who would aspire to be her "Prince Charming." Kitty has the wit and cleverness of Psyche; the grace and charm of an old world masterpiece. We love you, Kitty!

HELEN FREAS

French Club, 3; Freshman Club, 1; Girl Reserves, 2.

"Not too quiet, not too gay,
But loyal and true in every way."

If you want to find someone whom you can trust, you can count on Helen. The ruckus heads are sometimes the quietest and this rule holds good here. If you have gained her friendship you have certainly missed something, for she is a pal most loyal and true. Here's to you, Helen, may you have the best in life.

PHILIP H. GALLAGHER

"Phil"

Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5; Manager, 5; Track Team, 2, 3, 4, 5; Captain, 3; Manager, 4; Cross-Country Club, 2; Letter Club, 2, 3, 4, 5; Athletic Editor of "Rambler," 3; Student Assembly, 5; Secretary and Treasurer of Class, 4; Athletic Association, 1, 2, 3, 4.

"Sans peur et sans reproche."

"Phil," with his keen blue eyes and determined look, has become a much-admired being in the realms of Central High; and he will leave an "aching void" that will not be easy to fill when he departs triumphantly from the enlightening shadows of his Alma Mater. He is a devoted suppliant at the shrine of athletics, having made enviable records for himself in distance running, and at the shrine of the great out-of-doors, being an ardent hunter and lover of open spaces.

ETHEL MAE GANTT

"Esel"

Freshman Club, 1; Basketball Club, 1; Literary Society, 2; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Home Economics Club, 3, 4; Latin Club, 4.

"Strong mind she has, great skill in play,
A greeting glad, and a jolly way."

"Work and you work alone," is "Esel's" motto. She takes things as they come and forever seems bubbling over with love of life. She always finds something to laugh about, and when there's mischief, "Esel" is on hand. Although she is mischievous, she can be depended upon.

LOUISE WINDLE GARIBALDI

"Garibaldi"

President Freshman Club, 1; Athletic Association, 1; Sewing Club, 1; Student Council, 1; Magazine and Newspaper Club, 1; President of Class, 2; Secretary G. H. S. C., 2; Vice-President Student Council, 2; Secretary Literary and Debating Society, 2; G. H. S. C., 3; Marshal, 3; Mele Club, 3; President of Home Room, 3; Scribble and Scrawl, 3; Dramatic Club, 3, 4; President of Scribble and Scrawl, 4; Home Economics Club, 4; Vice-President Quenovalenada, 4; Vice-President Glee Club, 4; Associate Editor Annual, 4.

"I love thee for thyself—thyself alone."

Thinking and thinking and thinking, yet not a single thought half good enough for Louise. She's a Lady o' Moods, sometimes a pixie, jolly, and full of mischief; sometimes a fairy, all shiny and lovely; sometimes (O, just a few times!) the most perverse little goblin, all gloomy and sad; then sometimes she's almost an angel, so dear and sweet and good; and sometimes—but Oh! Folks, what's the use? Pixie, fairy, goblin or angel, all the time she's our Louise—everybody knows her, everybody loves her! Of course, she's Our Louise!

CLARENCE WILLIAM GOLDSTON
"Ikey"

Naturalist Club, 2; Glee Club, 2.

"His mirth was the pure spirits of various wit."

When a very serious discussion is in session in our most dreaded class, "Ikey" is sure to give forth some slow, drawling comment in a falsetto voice that will cause the entire class, including the teacher, to go into gales of laughter. He has a serious side too; yes, it crops out once in a great while, but, as the poets say, "A little fun now and then is relished by the wisest men." Clarence's business ability will gain him great success, and his humor will help him retain it.

VIVIAN DELMA GOLEY
"Billie"

"True-hearted, whole-hearted, Faithful and Loyal."

Girls' High School Club, 1, 2, 3; Domestic Art Club, 1, 2; Home Economics Club, 2, 3; President of Junior Civic Department of Woman's Club, 4.

Every one knows Vivian. Those that don't know her recognize her adorable laugh. She is a blonde, quite petite in size, with sparkling blue eyes. She is popular among the student body, as well as the faculty. Vivian, we can't praise you enough; we can only say that you will be greatly missed next year. We wish you success and happiness always.

GEORGE WASHINGTON GRAHAM
"Biscuit"

Hi-V, 2, 3, 4; Debating Team, 1.

"A wise old owl sat in an oak,
The more he heard the less he spoke."

During the four years of high school we have been fortunate in having "Biscuit" with us. He is more of a spectator than a talker; he has made numerous friends while in high school. He is always seen with a smile, especially by the girls. "Biscuit" is a true friend in every respect. Here's hoping for you, a howling success in the time to come.

MILDRED ADELAIDE GREENLEAF
"Maggie"

Treasurer of Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Guild Leader, 3; Vice-President Club, 3; Athletic Association, 1; Stringed Instrument Club, 1; Student Council, 2; Scribble and Scrawl, 3, 4; S. P. Q. R., 4; Secretary and Treasurer of Class, 1; Chapel Program Committee, 4; Entre Nous, 4.

"Friendship above all ties does bind the heart;
And faith in friendship is the noblest part."

Do you need a task well done?

Call on Mildred!

Sure, she'll make a good wife, son.

Call on Mildred!

Do the teachers need an aid?

Call on Mildred!

You should taste the cakes she's made.

Call on Mildred!

Do you want your Latin read?

Call on Mildred!

Do you want the sunshine spread?

Call on Mildred!

Louise Griffin

A vertical collage of four oval portraits of students. At the top right, a squirrel is perched on a branch. The background is filled with numerous small butterflies. At the bottom, a detailed line drawing of a forest with tall evergreen trees is visible. The portraits are arranged vertically, with the top one slightly offset to the left and the bottom one slightly offset to the right. The students are: a young woman with dark, wavy hair and a white collar; a young woman with dark, curly hair and a dark top; a young woman with dark, wavy hair and a white top; and a young man with dark hair, wearing a white shirt and a dark bow tie.

Louise has the prettiest brown eyes you most ever did see. On first glance they seem to be just dark brown eyes, but on second glance (and they always require a second) they seem to be dark, bottomless pools of laughter, sunshine, and mischievousness. She is not always the smartest in her class, but she gets there just the same.

Salisbury High School, 1, 2, 3; Girls' High School Club; Glee Club; Dramatic Club, 4.

"How long, oh, how long will it take us to learn that there are only two things in this life that really count? One is character, and the other is human sympathy."

Virginia came to Central High from Salisbury. She made a brilliant record in her Senior year, and we are proud to have her. "I think she is skilled in being able to give readings that will either make you in tears, or of laughter, or make you weep. She is also very musical. Virginia has been a great addition to our school, but our only regret is, that she has not been with us through the years of our struggle for an education.

Athletic Association, 1; Camp Fire Club, 1; Freshman Club, 1; Basketball Squad, 3; Girls' High School Club, 3, 4; Blue Triangle Elf Staff, 4; Marshal, 3.

"She's all my fancy painted her;
She's lovely, she's divine!"

Charlotte has that bewitching little mischievous way about her that all of us love, but very few of us possess. She's got a sunny disposition and always has a cheery word for all of us. Her comradeship is much sought after for she is a true friend to every one. Words affectionately dubbed "Sis" by her friends. Charlotte is a good worker and is making good on the basketball team! Her lovely blue eyes and light hair make an ideal combination and when she wears blue . . . Words simply can't express it. "She's lovely, she's divine!"

We're proud of you, Charlotte! May your life be full of success and happiness!

"He has a solid base of temperament."

Edwin dropped in from Massachusetts last year. He hadn't been with us long before we knew he was a jolly good fellow. He still has his "Yankee brogue" and is also a staunch Republican, but every day we are succeeding in making him a better Tar Heel.

JAMES MARTIN HAMILTON
"Jim"

Astronomy Club, 2; Athletic Association, 1.

"He that never gives up, finally succeeds."

"Jim" may be slow to rouse, but once he is fully roused he will carry any undertaking to a successful finish. With his good business head, his ability, his perseverance, and his readiness to help his fellow men, "Jim" is sure to achieve success after he leaves high school.

GEORGE BENDER KREAMER HANN

Wilsonian Literary Society, 4.

"Mith, with thee I mean to live."

George came to Charlotte High from another school, but he has proved his worth by his work here. George has everybody for a friend, as he well deserves.

ELLE GOODE HARDEMAN

Freshman Club, 1; Melody Makers, 1; Girls' High School, Class 4; Glee Club at Fassifern, 3; Lavender, Fassifern, 3; Entre Nous, 4.

"Mindful not of herself, but always thoughtful of others."

Elle is the fine type of a girl who is a friend to all. She is known and loved by every one because of her kind and sweet disposition. Elle is always jolly and ready for a good time, but never too busy to help some one. These things have won many friends everywhere for her.

GLADYS MAYO HARDIN "Glad"

Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Literary Society, 1; Girls' Reserve, 1.

"Music, like many other things worth living for, begins in the heart."

Gladys has been with us these four long years. Her merits as a conscientious student and a capable pianist are well known. She has stood by us through thick and thin. Since her life's work will be in the musical world, we hope that she will have a wonderful career. Best wishes to you, "Old Glad," and may you become a second Paderewski.

Young

ROBERT JORDAN HARPER
"Wookey"

Naturalist Club, 1; Short Story and Magazine Club, 1; Freshman Club, 1; Hi-Y Club, 2, 3, 4; Secretary of Hi-Y, 2; Vice-President Hi-Y, 4; Scribble and Scrawl, 3, 4; Vice-President Scribble and Scrawl, 4; Dramatic Club, 3, 4; Treasurer Dramatic Club, 3; Wilsonian Literary Society, 3, 4; Vice-President Society, 4 (First Semester); Secretary (Second Semester); Marchons, 3; Marshal, 3; Ring and Pin Committee, 4; Entre Nous, 4; Glee Club, 4; S. P. O. R., 4; Student Assembly, 4; Comic Editor Snips and Cuts, 4; R. O. R. C., 4; Secretary Senior Class, 4.

"He was so good a pal because he was so much a man."

An actor of note, most popular by vote,
A versatile fellow is Rob;
The breaking of hearts is the best of his arts,
But he does 't well, whate'er his job.
In honor he leads, abides by his creeds,
And shows the way for the rest of us;
No friend sincerer, no pal that's dearer
Can you find among the best of us.

HUGH HARRIS
"Hudie"

Spanish Club, 2; Scrub Team, 3, 4.

"Here's a friend, kind and true,
And he's always cheerful, too."

Quiet but always ready to do his part and lend a helping hand, Hugh was universally liked and we're all mighty sorry he had to leave us before graduation.

ROBERTA ELIZABETH HENDERSON
"Baby"

Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Melody Makers, 1; Sewing Club, 1; Athletic Association, 1; Marshal, 3; Home Room Representative, 2.

"Too full of love her soul is, to find a place for fear or anger."

Who could help loving "Baby" with her happy, winning ways? She is one of the neatest, sweetest and most attractive girls in the Senior class, as well as a true and sincere friend. She is a good sport and a lovable companion. Baby stands well in her classes and is a good, conscientious student. Last, but not least, she is beautiful!

*Best wishes
Emily A. Hepburn*

EMILY ALICE HEPBURN

Freshman Club, 1; Camp Fire Girls, 2; Marchons, 3.

"A nature so modest and rare
That you hardly at first see the strength that is there!"

Emily walking demurely down the hall, Emily studiously poring over a book, Emily "parlez-vous"-ing like a native of France, Emily with her quiet humor, Emily with her friendly smile . . . all these are pictures of Emily, but Emily herself is the prettiest picture of all!

Please don't forget Baby!

GLADYS BELL HORTON
"Shorty"

Girls' High School Club, 1, 2; Literary Society, 1; Commercial Club, 3, 4.

"The sweetest, the dearest, the most lovable, too, Best kind of a sport and a pal true blue."

"Shorty" is a quiet girl, who you hardly know is in the room. She has many friends, despite her quietness, for there is something about her that just seems to draw you to her. "Shorty" is one of our quiet, meditative classmates. She is the kind of girl we all want for a friend—true and loyal, and always to be depended on.

ELSIE MARSHALL HOWELL
"Pokey"

Girls' Freshman Club, 1; Dramatic Club, 2; French Club, 3; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4.

"Passing through the valley of weeping,
She makes it a place of smiles."

Elsie's personality is a symphony of love and truth. Way down deep in her dear, warm heart you'll find the drop of friendliness—a drop that glistens with the dew of sympathy for you and me. Her hair is dark and softly the shadows come and go. Looking down into the depths of her big, soft, brown eyes, one finds something that explains that beautiful music of hers.

MARIE ANTHONY INGOLD
"Reetie"

Freshman Club, 1; Camp Fire Girls, 1; Literary Society, 2; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Home Economics Club, 3, 4; Latin Club, 4.

"Rare compound of quality; noble and true,
With plenty of sense, and good humor, too."

"Reetie" is the sort of girl we all like. It would take more than the trials and tribulations of Senior-hood to discourage her. In fact, her pleasant smile and sweet disposition have helped us through many a period of "blues."

She is a lovable, attractive pal, of whose friendship anyone might be proud.

AVOLYN LEE JETTON

Freshman Club, 1; President of Dramatic Club, 3; Scribble and Scrawl Club, 3, 4; Latin Club, 4; Vice-President Senior Class, 4; Treasurer Junior Civics Department of Woman's Club, 4; Dramatic Club, 4.

"A heart to resolve, a head to contrive, a hand to execute."

Capable, dependable, and efficient, and jolly and sincere in addition—that's Avolyn. She is a girl that the class of '25 is glad to call one of its own. She possesses an attractive and winning personality, and carries with her the very best wishes of all her friends and classmates.

WILLARD VIRGINIA JOHNSON
"Slim"

Literary Society, 1, 2; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3; Commercial Club.

"A friend good and true
Who is true blue,
Thru' and thru'."

Willard is one of the smartest, most lovable girls in our class, whom all of us like very much. She is one of those girls who is able to talk seriously with you, yet she can easily take a joke and laugh with you. So we all wish "Slim" the best of luck all through life.

SARAH SCOTT JOHNSTON
"Scottie"

Basketball Team, 2; Captain Basketball Club, 2; Literary Society, 1; Dramatic Club, 4; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Guild Leader Girls' Club, 3; Sweet Briar Conference, 3.

"Beneath that calm exterior
There lies a deal of deviltry."

"Scottie" always prefers a good time to studying. She is a good sport and is always ready to take part in everything going on. When anyone sees her pretty auburn hair, he envies it. "Scottie" has won many friends with her ready smile and lovable disposition. Good luck to you, "Scottie!"

EVELYN EMILY JOSEPHS

Freshman Club, 1; Girls' Club, 2, 3, 4; President Home Economics Club, 3; Junior Civics Department of Woman's Club, 4; President Latin Club, 4.

"Not slow or fast to change, but firm."

Evelyn is a true friend and a jolly companion. She is always ready for a good time and enters into everything with a will. And even to this, we can add another trait—she is dependable. She seldom goes to the bat but when she goes she always makes a hit.

JOSEPHINE TATLA JOSEPHS
"Phenie"

Freshman Club, 1; Camp Fire Girls, 1; Literary Society, 3; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Home Economics Club, 4; Latin Club, 4.

"A good, true friend and jolly pal, whimsical, witty and wise;
A lovable, playful, active girl, makes good at all she tries."

Take some dark brown (almost black) curly locks, a pair of dark brown eyes, a broad smile, and you have "Phenie." She's one who never lets the many worries of school life trouble her. "Phenie" is full of fun, and you may trust her to laugh regardless of time and place. "Phenie" has the best wishes of the class of '25.

THOMAS WESLEY KELLER
"Tom"

Literary Society, 1; Athletic Association, 2; Photography Club, 4.

"Large was his bounty, and his soul sincere."

Loyalty, sincerity, dependability, learning—these are some of the sterling qualities that have made "Tom" popular with students and with faculty. We need no prophet to tell us that he will surely be a success in anything he undertakes.

D'ALMA HELEN KIRKLAND
"D"

President of Commercial Club, Secretary of "Six-Parrots," Scribble and Scrawl.

"D'Alma Kirkland, the queen of the queens,
She keeps her good health by eating
Boston-baked-beans."

If it were not for "D's" smiling countenance, the Senior boys would have to sit back and do a little studying. In typewriting, "D" is a whale of a student, and last year represented Charlotte in Winston-Salem to compete for State Championship. Of all her studies, there is nothing she likes better than study periods. She sure can swim, and excels in short-story writing. We hate to lose her, but hope she makes a great success in life as she has in our school.

J. WATT KIRKPATRICK

Treasurer Junior Hi-Y, 3; Senior Hi-Y, 4; Glee Club, 4; Kodak Club, 1.

"Where he falls short, 'tis Nature's fault alone;
Where he succeeds, the merit's all his own."

J. Watt has the talent of making friends. He knows how to get off a joke and relieve a dull situation. J. Watt is a good sport and a good student. No one can know him without liking him.

NINA MAE KRAUSE
"Shorty"

Spanish Club, 2; Latin Club, 2; Hickory High School.

Coming from Hickory High School for her Junior year "Shorty" has won many friends in old C. H. S. With her wistful, winning smile and her great blue eyes, diligent in her studies, sweet and gracious in her manner—Hickory's loss was our gain!

FRANCIS WILLIAMS LACHICOTTE
"Tant"

Junior High Debating Club, 1; Athletic Association, 2.

"'Tis patient toil assures success."

Francis, or Tant, as he is known by his intimate friends, is a real friend. Anyone who knows him will tell you what a loyal friend he makes. "Be square" and "stick to it" must be the guiding mottoes in his life. These show up every day in his school life as well as in his athletics. If he abides by his mottoes half as well after he leaves us as he did while we enjoyed his friendship at old Central, we feel assured that he has great possibilities awaiting him.

CLARA MAY LAWING
"Sis"

Girls' High School Club, 3, 4; Etiquette Club, 1; Home Economics Club, 3.

"Silence oft displays deep understanding."

Clara May has the reputation for being quiet; yet she possesses a dry humor and ready wit. She is a girl who prefers study to pleasure. Her congenial and amiable disposition has won her many staunch friends during her sojourn through high school. May her future hold all the happiness and good luck she justly deserves.

GEORGE BURGWIN LOCKHART

Freshman Club, 1; Newspaper and Magazine Club, 1; Hi-Y, 2, 3, 4; Literary and Debating Society, 2; Wilsonian Literary Society, 3, 4; Secretary, 4; Scribble and Scrawl, 3, 4; Marchons, 3; R. O. R. C., 4; Alternate Debating Team, 3; Debating Team, 4.

"He was so good a pal because he was so much a man."

If some good person has a fit,
You'll know what is to blame;
It's surely due to George's wit,
For laughter shakes your frame.

Besides this wit, he is a friend,
A friend whom we hold dear;
He will be faithful to the end,
Kind-hearted and sincere.

This rhyme is poor; it will not do
To sing of George's praise;
Instead of this I ask of you
To look back on his days.

EUNYCE QUINN LONG "Clem"

Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Marchons Club, 3; Athletic Club, 2; Glee Club, 4; Chairman Publicity Committee Girls' High School Club, 4.

"Sincerity and truth form the basis of every virtue."

Quinn is one of the sweetest, most attractive girls in our class. She's loyal and true, dependable and sincere. Quinn's sincerity is one of the most pleasing of her many charms. She's a good sport and likes fair play. As for looks—just look at those deep blue eyes: "they're wonderful." Win her love and you've won something worth while. Quinn is admired by a large circle of friends who wish her much happiness and success in life.

ALICE LUCIELLE LUMPKIN

"Barney"

Girls' High School Club, 2; 3, 4; Domestic Science Club, 3; Glee Club, 4; Freshman Club, 1.

"A friend in need is a friend indeed."

Here's to Alice, a dear and sweet girl,
Who will not be forgotten in life's mad whirl.
We'll remember your cheery smile that made brighter the day,
And our duties seemed lighter as we toiled on our way;
May the God of Kindness bless you through the years,
For when we say good-bye in our eyes there'll be tears.

BURWELL BADGETT MASON

Football Squad.

"Rare compound of quality, noble and true
With plenty of sense and good humor, too."

Burwell is a boy whom we all like and admire. He is the type of boy that if once your friend, is always your friend. And among the girls, he is right there—a ladies' man. The spirit that he shows on the athletic field is unequalled. Here's hoping that he will keep this spirit through his life.

VIRGINIA MASTEN

"Jen"

Home Economics Club, 3; Girls' High School Club, 1; Choral Club, 1; Domestic Art Club, 2.

"Dimples, lovely eyes and a smile,
Will always make friends worth while."

"Jen," always ready for fun, is a good sport and a true and faithful friend. Every one knows and loves her for her sweet disposition and winning ways. And those eyes!

WILLIAM M. MATHESON

"Bill"

Freshman Club, 1; Hi-Y, 2, 3; Radio Club; High School Orchestra.

"The bigger, the better!"

"The bigger, the better" suits "Bill" exactly, for it would be hard to find either a bigger or a better boy. In the Senior statistics "Bill" polled a number of votes for Best-All-Round and also for Most Influential (they say he carries the most weight). "Better" is just as appropriate as "Bigger" for Bill indeed leads the list with the splendid qualities of loyalty, dependability, sincerity, and ability.

RUBY ELIZABETH MILLER
"Booby"

Secretary Junior High Literary Society, 1; Junior High Editor for "Advocate," 1; Freshman Club, 1; President of Home Room, 2, 3; Student Council, 2; President Sophomore Class, 2; Vice-President of "Scribble and Scrawl," 3; Secretary of "S. P. Q. R.," 4; Class Historian, 4; French Club, 3; Scribble and Scrawl Club, 4.

"Her sunshine hair and eyes of blue Clothe a nature, loyal and true."

Ruby is both a good student and a good sport, the choicest and rarest of combinations. Although exceptionally wise, she is always into all the fun that's going on, and even starts it. She has that contagious smile which is a certain cure for the "blues." Ruby, with her pleasing personality, is just the kind of girl every one loves.

ANNE WYLIE MOORE

Fassifern School, Hendersonville, N. C., 2, 3; Marshal Fassifern, 3; Girls' High School Club, 4.

"Blue were her eyes as the fairy flax
And her cheeks like the dawn of day."

To know Anne is to love her. Tho' she has been with us only this one short year, she has made many warm friends. She is indeed the prettiest girl in our class and as sweet as she is pretty. There are some girls who are pretty and sweet, but who have no personality; but we cannot say this of Anne, for hers is one of the most striking we have ever known.

VIRGINIA MOORE
"Dolly"

Camp Fire Club, 1; Freshman Club, 1; Athletic Association, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Guild Leader, G. H. S. C., 3; President G. H. S. C., 4.

"Happy am I, from care I'm free;
Why aren't they all contented like me?"

"Dolly" is never in a hurry, but she gets there just the same. Every one welcomes her cheery smile and bewitching way, and we'll say she surely is a good president of the Girls' Club. When once she starts a thing she sticks it out to the end. We hope she'll lead many more groups with as much success as she is leading the Girls' Club.

MARGARET MORSE

Freshman Club, 1; Story Club, 1; Girls' Reserve, 2; Girls' High School Club, 4.

"Her every tone is music's own,
Like those of morning birds."

Sweet, jolly, bubbling over with fun, deeply sympathetic, loyally true; nevertheless, possessed of a rapier-like sarcasm if occasion demands; gifted in music, going out into the world with the purest and highest ideals in life; but withal, "A creature not too bright and good, for human nature's daily food," is our fair young English maiden—Margaret Morse.

Ruby Miller filled me to you in the "gam of life"!

Anne Moore

*Will you please forgive me for getting you on far more.
The something that is in Pamela.
Dolly*

THOMAS MISENHEIMER MOSS
"Fungi"

Naturalist Club, 1; Vice-President Boys' Glee Club, 4; Assistant Manager Football Team, 4; Manager Track Team, 4.

"True to his word and his work and his friend."

"Fungi" is everybody's friend and one of the most reliable boys in Central High. When he is given work to do, nothing short of brutal force can keep him from making a success of it. Honest as the day is long, "Fungi" is noted for his willingness to stand by his friends in all kinds of trouble and Central High will not have an easy time in finding another as worthy to take his place.

GUY ARTHUR MYERS, JR. "25"

V-Pi Club, 1; High School Orchestra, 1; Freshman Club, 1; Boys' Glee Club, 4; Phi-Y, 2, 3; Wilsonian Literary Society, 4; President Society (Second Semester), 4.

"Who mixed reason with pleasure,
And wisdom with mirth."

"Guy" is full of pep and always greets you with a smile. We all know "Guy" with his ever-ready wit but he can be serious, too. He is the kind of boy who says he is going to do something, and doesn't stop until he does it. We are looking forward to hear great things of you, "Guy."

KATHERINE McALLISTER

Girls' High School Club, 4; Freshman Club, 1; Sewing Club, 1; Girls' Reserve, 2; Orchestra, 4.

"Of her bright face one glance will trace
A picture on the mind."

This description certainly applies to Katherine. She always has a cheery smile for every one. She is sincere and dependable and is always true to her friends. She rarely loses her temper, and if she does, there is a just cause. Katherine is a lover of music and is an accomplished violinist. Her greatest ambition is to be able to move vast audiences with the wonder of her music. We all wish you success in this undertaking, Katherine.

JAMES MELVIN McCORKLE

Magazine Club, 1.

"Quiet, cheerful, and of good repute;
Who could be more?"

If you see a dark-haired fellow with an air of mystery and silence about him, but with perseverance and ability to stick to it in him, who radiates good cheer to all around him, that's Melvin. If I were a prophet, I would predict Melvin's exact future, but as I'm not, I shall predict great success for him just as a fellow student.

MARGARET LILLIAN McFARLAND
"Lill"

Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Camp Fire Girls, 1; Washington Irving Literary Society, 1.

"She hath never fed on the dainties that are in a book."

Lillian never lets her studies worry her. She believes in fun and lots of it. Therefore, one never sees her except in the sunniest kind of a mood. Lillian is always there with a smile and a good word for her friends. We hope these cheering qualities will continue with her throughout life.

BERYLE COLLEEN McINTOSH

Girls' Reserve, 1; Debating Literary Society, 2; Marchions, 3; Scribble and Scrawl, 3, 4; Girls' High School Club, 4.

"Not too quiet, not too gay,
But loyal and true in every way."

Beryle is just an all around good pal. We all love her dearly, and by her charming disposition she has won hosts of friends in Charlotte High.

If we should miss Beryle for nothing else, it would be for that adorable little giggle. Here's wishing you success in your college work and in life, Beryle.

SHERWOOD CAMPBELL McKAY

Lanier High School, Macon, Georgia, 1, 2; Central High School, 3, 4; Hi-Y, 4; Wilsonian Literary Society, 4.

"A nature so modest and rare
That you hardly at first see the strength that is there."

Campbell is a clear thinker, a monument to determination, a hard worker, and an admirer of squareness in every detail. With his integrity and nobleness of character, his sound judgment, and his courtesy and gentlemanly behavior toward all, it does not take much of a prophet to tell that a truly successful future lies ahead of him.

DORA ADELLE McMANUS

Girls' High School Club, 1; Astronomy Club, 3; Latin Club, 4.

"Sweet, kind, and quiet is she And always a smile has she."

Adelle doesn't have much to say, but she is always ready to lend a helping hand to some poor fellow classmate. For this and her winning smile she has won for herself a warm spot in the heart of every one.

SAM S. McNEELY, JR.

Current Event Club, 1; Baseball, 3; Vice-President Salesmanship Club, 3; Glee Club, 4; Student Assembly, 4.

"Success is his who says little, hears much, and thinks deeply."

Sam is a quiet lad, but his loyalty and sincerity have endeared him to his classmates. He is a good sport among the boys, and it is rumored that he is a veritable "Sheik" around the fair sex! In the Senior statistics Sam polled a number of votes for best-looking boy and his feminine admirers agree that he has a good claim to that title.

LOUISE McWHIRTER

Glee Club, 4; Girls' High School Club, 3, 4; Gym Class, 4; Home Economics, 3, 4.

"Her voice was ever soft, gentle, and low; an excellent thing in woman."

Louise, when one knows her well, and has gained her friendship, is found to be one of the sweetest, most cheerful and helpful of girls. She is always ready with a quick and pleasant smile for anyone. If she can be of any service to you, no matter how menial or how big the task, she will surely do it.

DIBBIE VIRGINIA NELSON

"De"

Literary Society, 1, 2; Commercial Club, 3, 4; Home Economics Club, 4.

"Happy am I; from care I'm free."

Dibbie is a student we all can depend on, even though she lets the future take care of itself. She has a charming personality and her winning ways have endeared her to the heart of every classmate.

LAURA ELIZABETH OWENS

"Lolly"

Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3; Melody Makers Club, 1; Hiking Club, 1; Athletic Association, 1; Tennis Tournament, 3; Red Cross Representative, 2; Student Assembly, 4; Entre Nous, 4.

"All work and no play Is simply not Laura's way."

Laura is hard to beat in more ways than in a Tennis Tournament. Pals like her, as good-natured, as true, and as witty, are as few as angels on this earth. Charms! Why just look in her big brown eyes. She has won many friends at C. H. S., and her winning smile will linger with us a long time.

WILLIAM ABBOT PHILLIPS

"Dody"

Football Squad, 4.

"Who mixed reason with pleasure, and wisdom with mirth."

"Dody" is a classmate of whom we may be justly proud. The best that can be said of one is that he is sincere and reliable, and in him we have both of these qualities. He has successfully mixed fun in with his diligent search for wisdom. Years shall not efface the many friendships he has made during his stay with us.

JESSE NICHOLAS PARKER, JR.

Glee Club, 1; Chemistry Club, 3; Scribble and Scrawl, 3, 4; Hi-Y, 4.

"Life's a jest and all things show it;
I thought so once, and now I know it."

Jesse is always there when it comes to cracking the best jokes. When things seem gloomiest, a remark from him will make the laughable side apparent.

Aside from all this, Jesse is a good student and a fine boy.

JOHNSTON THOMAS PITTS

"Tom"

Asheville High School, 1; Senior Hi-Y, 4; Spanish Club, 4; Advertising Manager of the Rambler, 4.

"He's a worker, a scholar, a helper, and friend!
He'll stick to you always, e'en to the end—"

We think that one of the best things that has ever happened to Central High School was Tom's coming here. You can look at the above verse, which accurately describes him, and see why we say this. Since being in Central High School, Tom has made a splendid record in his classes, and, needless to say, many friends.

HELOM CLAY POWELL

"Pav"

Girls' Freshman Club, 1; Dramatic Club, 2; French Club, 3; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4.

"Though our paths may lead a different way, We'll ne'er forget her for a day."

Helom's admirable personality and winsome ways have won numerous friends for her during her high school days. Her blonde curls and bright blue eyes make a most attractive combination. To know her is to admire her, for she is charming in manner. She is artistic and exceedingly talented in fancy dancing.

GEORGE WILLIAM PRESSLEY
"Buck"

Naturalist Club, 1; Glee Club, 2; Hi-Y Club, 3, 4; Marshal, 3, 4; Secretary and Treasurer Junior Class, 3; Tennis Squad, 3, 4; Varsity Tennis, 4.

"Silence persuades, when speaking fails."

"Buck" is our star tennis player. We envy the college that is lucky enough to gain him. He is always ready to help in anything one needs. He is a regular fellow, a true friend, and is well-liked by everyone. "Buck" is kinda lonesome this year. We wonder why?

SAMUEL LEE PRESSON
"Lord"

Marshal, 3; Naturalist Club, 1; Literary Society, 3, 4; Varsity Football, 4; Basketball, Class Basketball, 1, 2, 3; Secretary and Treasurer of Class, 3; Boys' Freshman Club, 1; Glee Club, 2, 4; Hi-Y, 2, 3, 4; Treasurer Hi-Y, 3; President Student Council, 4.

"He is a sure card."

"Lord" Presson is "ace high" in the "hearts" of his friends, and it is rumored that he is the "Jack of hearts" when it comes to the "Queens." He may be called a "King" when speaking of activities, because he takes a part in all of them. He is a good scholar as well as an athlete, and is a member of many "Clubs." In fact, he is just a "deuce" of a good fellow. You can always expect a square "deal" from "Lord" Presson.

MIRIAM VIRGINIA RAMSEY
"Minnie"

Literary Society, 1, 2; Commercial Club, 3, 4.

"A carefree, jolly, dark-eyed elf
Who loves a round of pleasure;
But hard as she tries, in spite of herself,
She can only study at leisure."

To know Miriam is to love her. Her beautiful brown eyes and winsome manner win for her many friends. She is much loved by her classmates and teachers, and can always be depended on to perform successfully any duty assigned to her. Miriam is taking a commercial course and whatever her intentions may be, we wish her the best success.

WILLIAM H. REDFERN
"Bill"

V-Pi Club, 1; Glee Club, 1, 4; Athletic Association, 1; Hi-Y, 2, 3, 4; Secretary Boys' Freshman Club, 1; President Hi-Y, 2; Secretary Boys' Cabinet, 3; President Boys' Cabinet, 4; Junior Basketball, 3; Football, 4; Letter Club, 3, 4; Athletic Editor Snips and Cuts, 4; Advertising Staff of Snips and Cuts, 3; Varsity Track, 3; Marshal, 3.

"Sport that wrinkled care derides,
And laughter holding both his sides."

In Bill we have a good pal; one who is always ready to help one of his fellow-students and friends; one who is a good and jolly companion. He has, although hindered by his stature, made an enviable name for himself in different forms of athletics. And talk about "wimmen," he has put old King Solomon in the shade, when it comes to the number of his fair admirers.

JUANITA REID
"Bill"

S. P. Q. R. Club, 4; Sewing Club, 1.

"Modest and simple and sweet,
The very type of Juanita."

Juanita is very studious, but enjoys all leisure moments. We hope her sincerity and sweet disposition will always stay with her. You just ought to hear her "spiel forth" Latin; she's a regular Cicero, the Second. Juanita is always successful in anything she undertakes.

LINTON HARVEY ROBERTSON

Literary Society, 2; Chemistry Club, 3; High School Orchestra, 2; Hi-Y, 3; Carolinian Orchestra, 4.

"Music hath charms to soothe the savage breast."

Linton may not be an Orpheus, but he surely "plunks a mean banjo." It is a delight to hear him in the orchestra, singing the latest song hit to the accompaniment of his banjo. Aside from his musical talent, Linton has proved a loyal member of the class of '25 by his perseverance, his friendliness, and his ability.

RUSSELL ROGERS
"Hosses"

Junior High Literary Society, 1; Asheville High School, 2; Hi-Y, 3, 4; Vice-President Hi-Y, 3, 4; Glee Club, 4; Rambler Staff, 4.

"Competent, helpful, never blue,
His virtues are many, his faults are few."

Russell is a quiet, unassuming kind of boy and "wild hosses" cannot drag him into doing the wrong thing. "Hosses" is a good sport, loyal to his friends and to his school. He is all of this to the boys, and in addition he's a regular "sheik" with the girls.

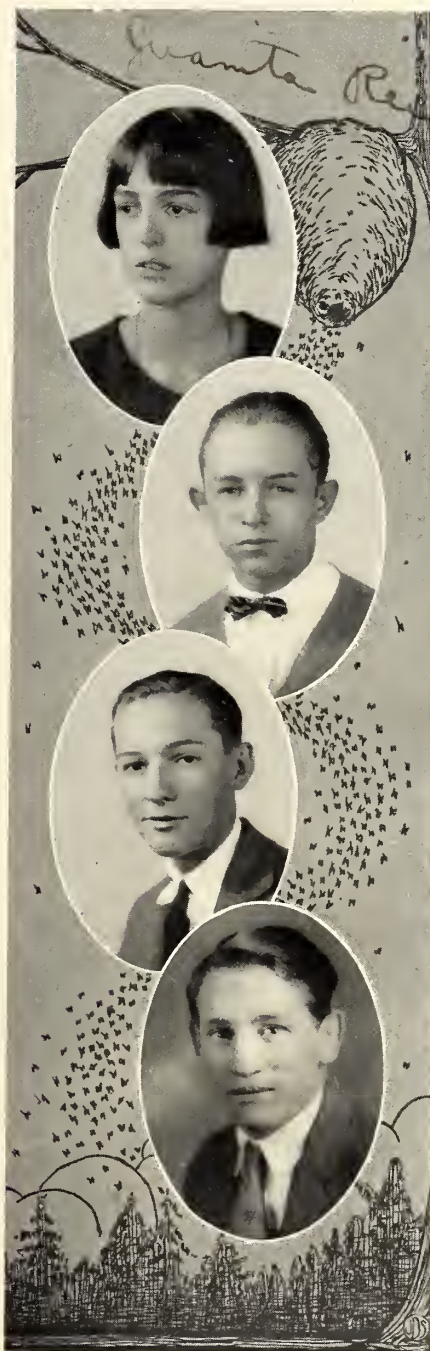

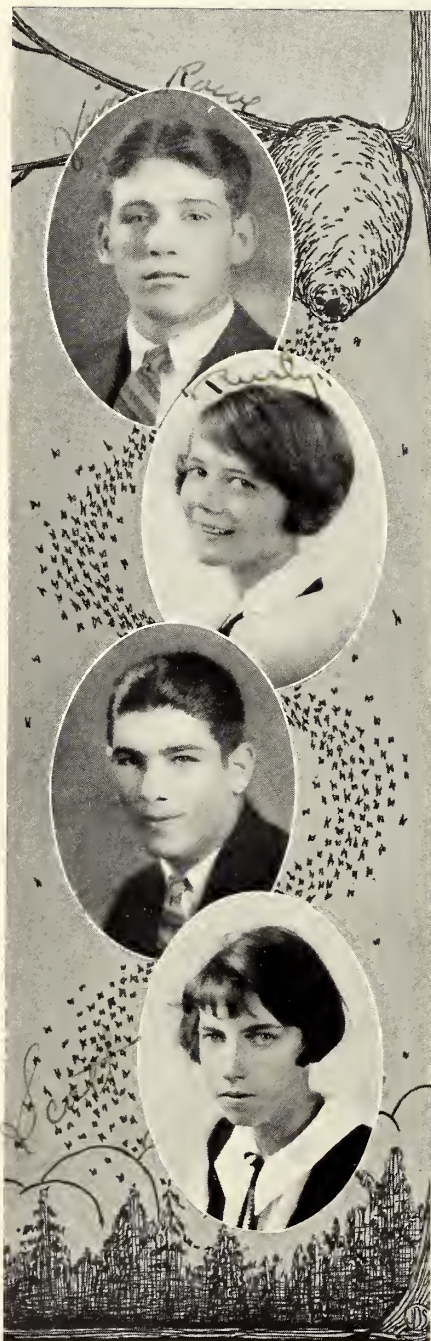

CRAYTON EDWARD ROWE

Cross-Country Club, 2; Cameron Morrison Literary Society, 1; Naturalist Club, 2; Spanish Club, 4; Hi-Y, 4.

"True courage scorns to vent her prowess in storms of words."

We all know Crayton as one of our most popular boys, and certainly the wisest known. He is a youth of courage and character, modesty and morals, that many would be proud to attain. His ruling passion is athletics, with his greatest devotion toward boxing. As a boxer, he gained great fame, defeating the best boys in the South, including one draw with the Champion. Crayton is good-tempered, considerate, even tolerant, which makes him agreeable. He smiles as smoothly at censure as flattery, and neither affects him unduly. His pals may squabble or quarrel, but Crayton never does. "The fire in the flint is not seen until struck."

JAMES BURNETT ROWE "Jimmy"

Literary Society, 1; Naturalist Club, 2; Boys' Letter Club, 3, 4; Declamation and Debating Society, 1; Football Team, 4; Track Team, 3; Captain Track Team, 4; Ili-Y, 4; Treasurer Senior Class, 4.

"Care to our coffins adds a nail no doubt,
And every grin, so merry, draws one out."

Always with a merry grin and something funny to say, Jimmy has helped lots to cheer us in our long toil through "Hi Skule." That same peppy brain has put him ahead in all his classes and in football and track he has sure "strutted his stuff." His best-all-round qualities have made Jim one of the finest boys and best pals Charlotte Ili has ever known.

ISLA ESTELLE RUST "Heinie"

Freshman Club, 1; Camp Fire Girls' Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4.

"A fair sweet girl with skillful hand
And cheerful heart for treasure."

"Heinie" is one of the sweetest and most attractive girls in our school. We all love her because of her winsome ways. She has brought laughter to many a solemn class-room with her cheerful disposition. She is a loyal and true friend to all who know her and is ever ready to help a friend in time of need.

HARRY LEWIS SCHWARTZ "Rabbi"

Football, 2, 3, 4; Captain of Football Squad, 4; Basketball, 3, 4; Letter Club, 3, 4.

"He's a wonder, he's a dream,
He's the captain of our team."

C. H. S. is indebted to Schwartz, who, during his years with us, has proven indeed worthy of the honor of captain of our team. His ability on the football field has won him the distinction of being chosen as captain of the All-Southern High School Football Team. "Rabbi" is not only a great athlete but is also a loyal friend and a dependable man.

HELEN RITCHIE SCOTT "Nell"

Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Sewing Club, 1; S. P. Q. R., 4.

"There is no limit to a real friend's value."

If you want to find someone whom you can trust, you can count on Helen. The truest friends are sometimes the quietest. Helen is loved by all who know her; she has a certain quiet dignity all her own. It is her greatest pleasure to do something for someone else, and she has the best wishes of us all as she goes out into the world to do greater things.

KARL W. SELDON

Literary Society, 1; Boys' Glee Club, 1, 2; Track, 3; Class Basketball, 1, 2; Varsity Basketball, 4, 5; Hi-Y Club, 2, 3, 4; Orchestra, 4; Letter Club, 2, 3, 4, 5.

Karl is one of the most popular boys in school. Since he is a member of a popular orchestra, the girls simply adore him. He excels in his studies as well as athletics and finds favor in the eyes of his teachers. If there ever was a finer, cleaner, and more straight-forward gentleman than Karl, we have not met him.

CUYLER SELLARS

Cross-Country, 1, 2; Glee Club, 2, 3, 4.

"Not too serious, not too gay
But always a jolly good fellow."

Cuyler is a combination rarely found, a student by nature and a good mixer, too. Those who know him respect him for his manly qualities, admire him for his independence, and love him for his friendliness.

MARION FOSTER SHANNON

"Baby"

Camp Fire Girls, 1; S. P. O. R. Club, 4; Vice-President "Entre Nous," 4.

"She is bright, she is witty, she is pretty it's true;
So you see we wouldn't swap her for a million like you."

Altho' Marion is not very tall, in stature, she always manages to make herself seen and heard. She has won many friends in High School by her jolly, lovable disposition. She is smart, independent, capable, and just lots of fun. Math is our Marion's long suit, tho' all of them are rather long considering that Marion enjoys her studies (judging from appearances). She is always bright and smiling and her presence is exceedingly refreshing.

ELLNA RUTH SHANNONHOUSE

"Florida"

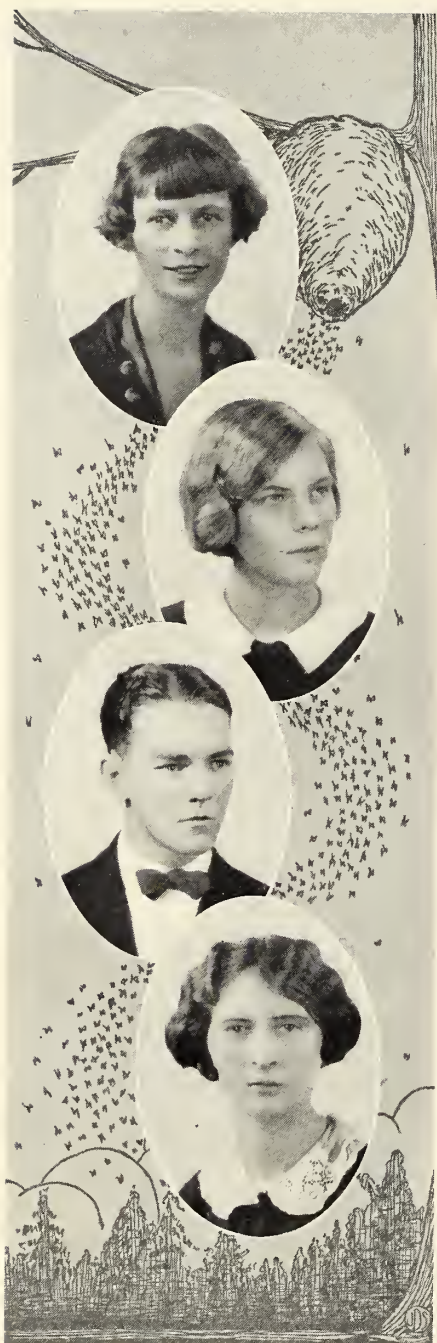

Literary and Debating Club, 1, 2, 4; Basketball 2, 3; Physical Director, 3; Center Hill High School, Florida; Girls' Club, 4.

"In all my days I never knew a lass,
Who enjoyed life so much, yet so bright in every class."

Ellna is just an all-round girl, with an ever-smiling countenance and a jolly disposition. She is always ready and willing to do anything that she is asked to do, and we think that she makes altogether an agreeable and satisfactory classmate. May her future hold all the happiness and good luck that she justly deserves.

Ellna R. Shannonhouse

LUDELLA SHEALLY
"Ludnutts"

Girls High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Freshman Club, 1;
Glee Cub, 4; High School Orchestra, 4; Track Team, 3.

"The world belongs to the energetic."

In Ludella we have a girl bubbling over with pep and enthusiasm. She is known as being a good sport. "Ludnutts" has won some honors in her day. In her Freshman year she took first place for high jump, and second place for broad jump. Ludella, we will remember you as being a great factor in helping to keep up our record in high school for athletics.

MARY LEE SHEPHERD
"Shaggy"

Dramatic Club, 1; Athletic Association, 1; Marshal, 3; Senior Class President, 4; Entre Nous, 4; Member of U. F. E. Club; B. V. E. Club; C. C. C. Club; R. O.
T. C. Junior Club; Student Council, 4.

A cute ole girl is "Shaggy" Shep,
Not only full of prunes and pep
Of which she has an ample store;
But also great in shooting game;
Anything that's not quite tame
Appears to suit her—all the same.
In breaking hearts, she leaves her mark,
But treats it all as just a lark;
Her personality is such, that all
Who know her, love her much.
Attractive is she, full of grace,
Elusive charm is in her face,
And this last thing I'll say about her;
It would be hard to do without her.

WALTER GASTON SHOEMAKER
"Duke"

Vice-President Class, 2; President of Home Room, 3;
Current Events, 3; Marshal, 3; Salesmanship Club, 3;
Basketball, 3, 4; Captain Central High Basketball Squad,
3; Jolly Fellows Club, 4.

Handsome is
As handsome does,
And he does handsome.

"Duke Handsome" sounds like a name, but it is only a title that he well deserves. A friend to every one, a pal to all—that's "Duke." Behind that smiling face is a heart as true and great as can be found. A better lover and companion no girl has ever had. Let us hope someone will come to fill our friend's place among us.

CLARA EVANS SHORT
"Kat"

Girls' High School Club, 2, 3; Debating Club, 2.

"A daughter of the gods, divinely tall, divinely fair."

Jolly, good-natured Clara! What a dismal world this would be if it were not for such boundless enthusiasm as hers! Her presence is refreshing, for she's always bright and smiling. So it is not strange that she's a girl that suits us all. With her sunny disposition and pleasing manner, tinged with a restful sense of humor, she has endeared herself to every one; and we all join in wishing her the very best of luck throughout her whole life.

ALBERT CORNWELL SHUMAN

Hi-Y, 2, 3, 4.

"Silence is golden."

Cornwell possesses all the qualities of a true friend. As we see him walking through the halls of Central High, we wonder what is behind those well-set eyes. We guess that he is thinking about his main hobby, which is chemistry and physics. Some day we will hear of Cornwell as a world-known scientist.

JOHN DENNIS SHUMAN

"John D."

Glee Club; Art Club; Secretary of Home Room; Art Editor of Annual, 4.

"His pencil was striking, resistent, and grand,
His manners were gentle, complying, and bland."

Here's to John D. we are expecting great things of him one of these days, for he is famed in Central High as being an excellent artist. He is a quiet boy and makes unusually high grades. We need more of his kind in our school. Since true success can only be attained by hard work, and John D. doesn't seem to be afraid of work, we predict a brilliant future for him.

MADGE WILLIAM SHUMAN

"Mak"

Literary Society, 1; Commercial Club, 3, 4; Freshman Girls' Club, 1.

"I know not how others saw her,
But to me she was wholly fair."

If there are any of us who have never known Madge, let's take this opportunity to make her acquaintance. She is an ideal friend to those with whom she comes in contact, and is greatly admired by her friends. Madge is a scholarly and spirited girl and we feel sure that this dear old class of '25 is going to be proud of her some day.

LLOYD ALEXANDER SIFFORD, JR.

"Lloyd"

Hi-Y, 3, 4; President Junior Hi-Y, 3; President Senior Hi-Y, 4; Football, 3, 4; Wilsonian, Literary Society, 4.

"Large was his bounty and his soul sincere."

Among Lloyd's virtues is dependability; that's one of the very many, and his vices are too few to mention. Lloyd may never conquer empires, but that's just because there are no more empires left to conquer; and probably he will never startle the world with his brilliance, but who cares about that when he has the army of friends to command that Lloyd has?

WALLACE SIMPSON

"Simp"

German Club, Oak Ridge, 3; Athenian Literary Society, 3; Tennis Squad, 3.

"One who laughs at his work, and laughs at his play,
And has a good time the whole live-long day."

Wallace came to us this year from Oak Ridge. He is witty and "full o' fun" at all times. Ask somebody who knows, whether he can dance. Wallace has made scores of friends. We are very glad to have him in the class of '25.

MARY ALAN SKELDING

"Pete"

Freshman Club, 1; Secretary Freshman Club, 1; Hiking Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2; Annual Staff, 4; B. Y. E., 4.

"Her happy disposition, her pleasant smile,
Have won her friends for many a mile."

"Pete" is a good all-around sport and a true friend. She is peppy, reliable, and can always be counted on to do her share. She is good-nature personified, always wearing a smile and ready for fun. Fun, smiles, pep—that's Pete. May her future be as successful as her high school days have been!

ALMA LEE SMITH

"Al"

Girls' High School Club; Freshman Club.

"Determination prepares its own way to success."

Alma's outward appearance would create the belief that she is an unusually quiet girl. But still water flows deep, and upon further acquaintance Alma proves herself to be very jolly and good-natured.

FRANK BRANDON SMITH, JR.

Business Manager Ramblers, 3, 4; Manager Football Team, 5; Annual Staff, 3; Kodak Club, 2; Boys' Cabinet Y. M. C. A., 4; H. Y. Club, 3, 4, 5; President Senior Hi-Y, 4; Cameron Morrison Literary Society, 1; Magazine Club, 3; Marshal, 4; Athletic Association, 1, 2; Manager Track Team, 5.

"He laughs at his work, and laughs at his play,
And has a good time the live-long day."

Brandon is a boy of striking qualities who has made many friends while in high school. They all admire his splendid business ability. All girls are his weakness; one meant his downfall.

GREGORY ANDREW SMITH
"Reverend"

Debating Literary Society, 2.

"Silence is golden."

The wit and common sense of "Reverend" are well famed in C. H. S.; his happy nature and all around solidness make him one of the best-liked students in our high school. Gregory is popular wherever he goes with both sex. He is at home in any environment (after the first five minutes of pushing), and always seems able to do as the Romans do. He goes over obstacles, not around them. "Reverend" works with energy and determination, and seldom shirks his duty. We haven't room enough to tell all the reasons why Gregory will have a brilliant future.

SAMUEL WILSON SMITH
"Sam"

Magazine Club, 1; Athletic Association, 1; Hi-Y, 2, 3, 4; Secretary Hi-Y, 3, 4; Dramatic Club, 3, 4; Vice-President Dramatic Club, 4; Marching Club, 3; Chapel Program Committee, 4; S. P. Q. R., 4; Wilsonian Literary Society, 4; R. O. R. C., 4; Business Manager "Snips and Cuts," 4.

"The world means something to the capable."

We Seniors have voted him the handsomest. He's handsomer far than Rudolph V. We've also voted him most business-like, more business-like than old John D. In addition to these things we've voted him, other splendid qualities he has. And they are qualities seldom found in this merry old world of jazz. For he's serious and steady, steady and true, dependable and friendly, and capable, too. And this I'll add—if you have met him, there's one thing sure—you won't forget him!

WILSON CATES SNELL
"Cootie"

Cameron Morrison Literary Society, 1, 2; Secretary Commercial Club, 3; Commercial Club, 3, 4; Track Team, 4.

"Here's a good fellow, pleasant, pleasing, and kind; He is always on deck, be the weather worse, bad, or fine."

"Cootie" is one of those modest, reserved and unassuming individuals who don't have much to say, but are prompt in performance of their duties. In addition he is a great admirer of the fair ones, and it is said that women have a fatal attraction for him. As a young man of high ideals, strength of character, energy, and determination, "Cootie" will surely attain success and distinction in this great world of endeavor.

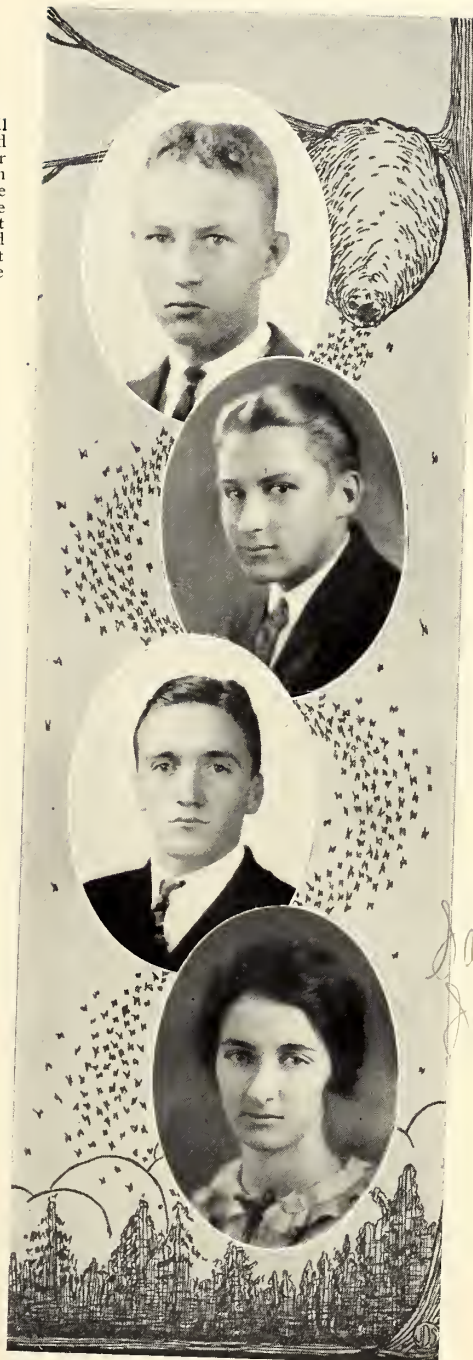

SARAH SOUTHERLAND

Scribble and Scrawl, 3, 4; Short Story Club, 1; Girls' High School Swimming Team, 2, 3; S. P. Q. R. Latin Club, 4.

"Nature I loved; and, next to nature, art."

To know Sarah is to have the acquaintance of a true and worthy friend. None of us doubt that she will make good use of her talents in music and art. These aren't the only things Sarah is gifted in. It would be useless to try to tell the things she can do, but we will say that everything she undertakes she carries it through.

WALTER SMITH SPEARMAN

Junior High Literary Society, 1; Student Council, 1; Hi-Y, 2, 3, 4; Vice-President Hi-Y, 3; Y. M. C. A. Boys' Cabinet, 4; Scribble and Scrawl, 3, 4; President Scribble and Scrawl, 3; Dramatic Club, 3, 4; President Marchons, 3; Wilsonian Literary Society, 3, 4; President Society, 4; Chairman Chapel Program Committee, 4; Ring and Pin Committee, 4; Entre Nous, 4; Student Assembly and Council, 4; S. P. O. R., 4; R. O. R. C., 4; Underclassmen Editor "Snips and Cuts," 3; Editor-in-Chief "Snips and Cuts," 4.

"He was so good a pal because he was so much a man."

Of all the students in our school there's none more liked than Walter.

His first law is the Golden Rule; his judgments never falter.

To us he is the most sincere; we follow where he leads; And to us all he is most dear—we know him by his deeds. And when in future years we hear about a man who's grown so great—

Whose fame shines out so bright and clear, we'll know it's Walter—that's his fate!

EDWIN GIBSON SPEIR

"Ed"

Freshman Club, 1; Hi-Y, 2, 3, 4; President Hi-Y, 4; Vice-President Freshman Class, 1; Glee Club, 1; V-Pi Club, 1; Orchestra, 2, 3; Assistant Business Manager "Snips and Cuts," 4.

"Be the labor great or small

Ed does it well or not at all."

Ed is a fine fellow, and liked by all. The class showed keen judgment in selecting Ed as the most energetic boy in the Senior class. Here's to you, Ed; we are all expecting great things from you.

GEORGIE LORORA SPRATT

"Saucie"

Melody Makers, 1; Athletic Association, 1; Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 3, 4; Student Assembly, 4.

"She is little and she's wise,
But she's a terror for her size."

Georgie's smile greets us as quickly as her flaming red hair. She makes every one around her happy, and even the teachers have to laugh at witty Georgie. She not only has red hair, but she has heaps of brains under that hair; and she uses them to a good advantage.

CORAE BEATRICE STANCILL

"Bebe"

"I strove with none, for none were worth my strife;
Nature I loved, and, next to nature, art!"

If you say "Beatrice" nobody knows her, but just say "Bebe" and immediately she is recognized. She has the most adorable tip-tilted nose that gives her a whimsical, impish air, and curly lashes fringe her heavenly blue eyes. To those who know her she is the dearest and sweetest pal imaginable. Bebe's disposition never changes; whether things are right or wrong, whether lessons are learned or unlearned, Bebe's better nature asserts itself and no cloud appears on her horizon.

HARRIETTE STILES
"Rary"

Home Economics Club, 3; Etiquette Club, 1.

"There's no one in the land
That's half as sweet as she."

It is true we all love her for who could help it? Harriette is a girl of an unusually sweet disposition. She also has a laugh that makes you want to laugh with her. She is very sweet and attractive, too, and always ready for mischief. For these reasons, every one who knows her loves her.

WILLIAM MASON STRONG, JR.
"Bill"

V-Pi Club, 1, 2; Hi-Y, 2.

"These pleasures, Melancholy, give;
And with thee I mean to live."

If you do not know Bill, you have missed something important. Bill does not talk much but he is right behind you when the pinch comes.

LAURA FRANCES STUBBS
"Toad"

Melody Makers Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3; Home Economics Club, 3; French Club, 3; Spanish Club, 4; Commercial Club, 4; Freshman Club, 1; Athletic Association, 2; Salesmanship Club, 4.

"She's kind, she's modest, sincere, and true,
More studious, more generous than any of you."

"Toad" is a girl of a winning personality and has a very sweet disposition. Smart—Huh! Well I guess! We often wish we could get such wonderful marks as she and still have such good times out of school. She is a grand dancer and swims like a fish. When she plays the piano, you just can't keep still.

WALTER MONROE SUMMERVILLE
"Walt"

Cross-Country Club, 1; Literary Society, 1; Naturalist Club, 1; Astronomy Club, 1; Letter Club, 3, 4; Varsity Track, 3, 4.

"He that never gives up finally succeeds."

Determination, consistency of effort, a will, purpose—these are elements of success, and it is these qualities which give "Walt" a bright future and have attracted to him a score of close friends.

It takes an athlete to make our track team and "Walt" not only held down a position on our championship track team of 24 but he was a sure scorer of points. Having had the pleasure of his confidence and friendship for the last four years, we are loath to bid him goodbye for one seldom finds so staunch a nature and makes so firm a friend.

HAMILTON BOOTH SUTTLE "Ham"

Letter Club; Football Squad, 2, 3, 4; President Junior Class, 3; Chief Marshal, 3.

"Look, he's winding up the watch of his wit;
By and by it will strike."

"Ham" has shown fine form and a winning determination on the football field. If you're looking for a boy who is always ready for fun and has a ready smile, you've found him in "Ham." We must not leave out his wit, for he keeps you laughing all the time you're around him.

ELIZABETH TALBERT "Tooty"

Hiking Club; Girls' High School Club; String Instrument Club; Freshman Club.

"Not too quiet, not too gay,
But loyal and true
In every way."

"Tooty" is one of the few people who possess a really sweet disposition. She was never heard to say an unkind word of anyone. In her you have a loyal and true friend, willing to help you in any worthy undertaking. "Tooty," we hope you get the best that the world has to give.

MARGARET PENDELTON TALIAFERRO "Shorty"

Freshman Club, 1; Melody Makers, 1; Athletic Association, 1; B. Y. E. Club, 4; U. F. E.

Some would accuse our "Shorty" of being a sophisticated gal—but we know better. As a dancer she can't be beat. As a talker—words fail us! And as an all-around friend and attractive companion she's a knockout.

VICTOR B. TEMPLETON "Vic"

Debating Club, 1; Salesmanship Club, 4; Spanish Club, 4.

"Good nature and good sense are ever joined."

Victor is a fine boy, always willing to take part in anything when he is called on. He is a very studious boy and always makes good grades in school. Victor is popular among his fellow students, and he is loved by all his teachers because he is polite and courteous.

ELSIE THIES

"Jane"

Dramatic Club, 1; G. H. S. C., 3; Home Economics Club, 1; Glee Club, 4.

"Her jolly smiles and cures for woes
Make friends for her wherever she goes."

Elsie is known to every one by her winning smile, and to have her for a friend is to have one that is loyal and true. Her sunny smile and happy disposition will always win for her scores of friends. She is bright, she is witty, she is pretty, it's true; we wouldn't swap her for fifty like you.

JOHN R. THOMPSON

"Written on his face by nature's hand are these two words 'A Gentleman.'"

John is the possessor of those qualities that make us like a person better the more we know him. His quiet and gracious manner has won him a warm place in the hearts of the students of C. H. S.

GEORGE COURTNEY TODD

"Bus"

High School Orchestra, 4; Glee Club, 4; Wilsonian Literary Society, 4.

"Music hath charms to soothe a savage breast."

"Bus" came to our school at the beginning of the year from Dumfries, N. J. During this short period he has made numerous friends. He likes to have fun and play, and is a jolly good fellow in every way. "Bus" is especially talented in music and is a splendid performer on the violin.

TIMOTHY CHARLES TOOMEY

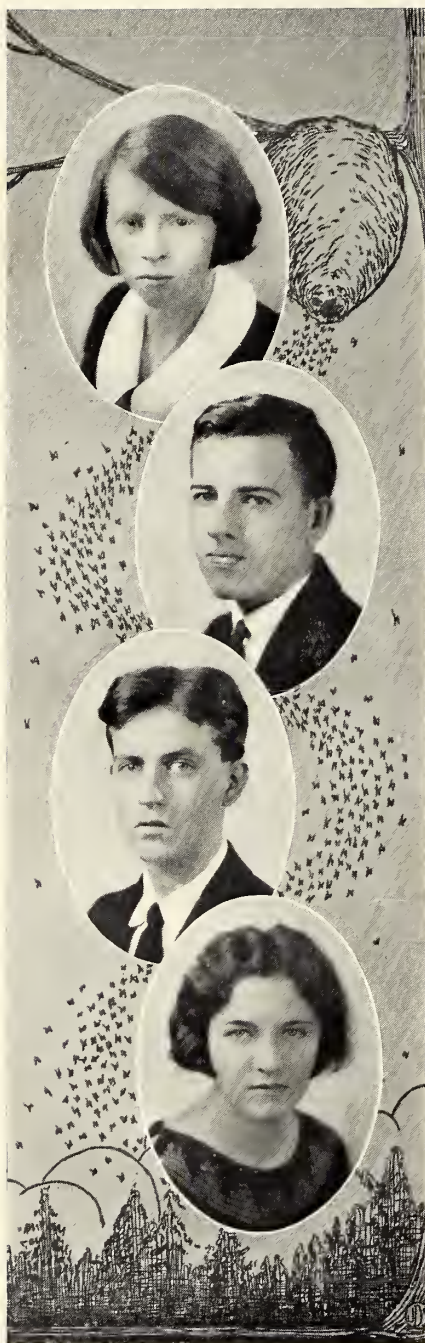

"T. C."

Salesmanship Club; Glee Club, 4.

"Wit and humor belong to genius alone."

"T. C." is one of the class wits, and spreads merriment wherever he goes. He is not all fun, however, for he can get down to his work and finish with little trouble. "T. C." has a certain attraction in music class (?). We hope he will keep his jolly and bright disposition after he leaves us.

MARGARET ALLISON TORRENCE
"Toots"

"Rare compound of quality, noble and true,
With plenty of sense and good humor, too."

Who could help but love "Toots," with her happy winning ways. She is one of the neatest and sweetest girls in the Senior class, as well as a true and sincere friend.

JOHN SCOTT TROTTER
"Sheik"

Hi-Y, 2, 3, 4; President Hi-Y, 3; Boys' Cabinet, 3, 4; Home Room President, 3; Glee Club, 1, 4; President Glee Club, 4; Symphony Orchestra, 2, 4; President Symphony Orchestra, 4; Jazz Orchestra, 2, 3; Hi-6, 4; V-Pi Club, 1, 2; Secretary V-Pi Club, 2; Scribble and Scrawl Club, 3, 4; Treasurer Literary and Debating Society, 2; Marshal, 3; Vice-President S. P. Q. R. Club, 4; Vice-President Quenovalenada 4; President Student Assembly and Student Council, 4; Class Lawyer, 4.

"If nature wishes to make a man estimable, she gives virtues; if she wishes to make him esteemed, she gives success."

To "Sheik" nature has lavishly given both virtues and success. So versatile is he that he presides with ease over meetings of the Student Assembly, stands high in scholarship, and when jazzing the piano, in presentday vernacular, he "paws a mean pedal." In school and in after life his sincerity of purpose and purity of character assure for him a true success.

RALPH ROLAND TURNER, JR.
"Dainty"

Richmond Academy, 1; Abbeville High School, 2, 3; Pi Lambda Chi, 4.

"He acts well his part and there all honor lies."

Roland came to us from Abbeville High School of South Carolina and has shown us that the "Boll Weevil State" has turned out at least one good product. He has proven a loyal member of the class of '25, and we predict for him a successful future.

GRETta WAGGONER
"Fritz"

Literary Society, 1, 2; Gymn Club, 1; Scribble and Scrawl, 3, 4; Glee Club, 4.

"Not too serious, not too gay,
But just a good friend in every way."

"Fritz" is the type of friend that one never forgets. When she looks at you with her laughing blue eyes, she charms you. She is interested in her school and seldom fails to appear at the games. She loves to have a good time but does not allow her love of pleasure to keep her from her studies. Gretta is just a fine, all-round girl.

KATHERINE WARD

Athletic Association, 1; Melody Makers, 1; Vice-President Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Secretary Sophomore Class, 2; Cheer Leader, 3; Mele Club, 3; Marshal, 3; Glee Club, 4; Dramatic Club, 4.

"We're glad she's here, and we like her heaps, She's in our memory—and she's there for keeps!"

Puzzle, Katherine; more puzzle, more Katherine; puzzle solved, but what a queer puzzle, yet oh! how fascinating to work out. Katherine loves to read, to dance, to be always on the "go," to thrill with the pleasure of life. Indeed she is rather deep and hard to be solved, yet what a lovely piece of humanity you have when you really have found her out; and oh, how well worth your time in finding.

ALBERTA WASHBURN

Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Freshman Club, 1; Camp Fire Girls, 2; Home Economics Club, 4.

"True to her word, her work, and her friends."

Always she's true to you;
Lovingly kind to you;
Believes the best of you;
Enters the heart of you,
Right royally welcomed.
Truly from the mass of us,
Alberta's the lass for us!

GENEVIEVE LURRAINE WELLBORN

"Jeanne Lu"

Glee Club, 3, 4; Violin and Orchestra, 1, 2; MacDowell Musical Club, 1; Sigma Alpha Sorority, 2; Junior College Mixed Chorus, 1, 2; India Opera, 2; Basketball, 1, 2; Indoor Baseball; Tennis; Volleyball; Swimming; Scribble and Scrawl, 4.

"Sweet, kind, loyal and true
In every way a friend true-blue."

"Jeanne Lu" came to us just this year from the Chafey Union High School and Junior College in Ontario, California. By her winning smile and lovable way she has won a place in all of our hearts. We wish, Jeanne, that we might have had you with us during the entire four years.

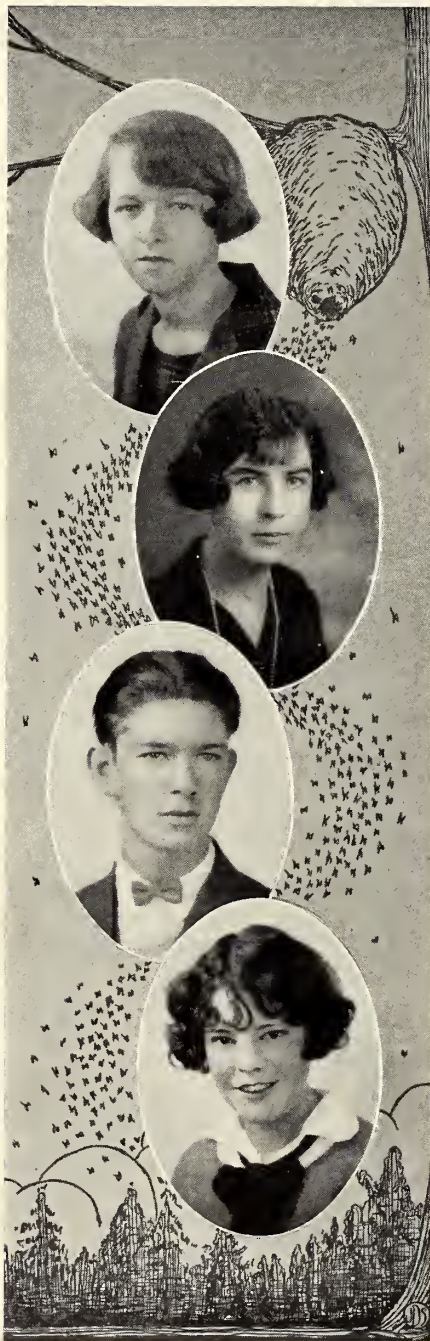

NANCY EVELYN WENTZ

"Eb"

Etiquette Club; Freshman Club; Girls' High School Club.

Evelyn is loved by all who know her and know that she is a true and good friend to have. She always has a smile for every one and a good word for all. She believes in having a good time but in the right way. Sports appeal to her, especially those of her own school.

JOSEPHINE DOUGLAS WHARTON
"Jo"

"La Progresiva," Cardenas, Cuba; Girls' High School Club, 3, 4; Spanish Club, 4.

Josephine came to us straight from Cuba, and you should hear her speak Spanish! We're mighty glad we have Jo; she is an asset to our school. We wish her a successful career and a bright future.

ANNIE MAE WILLIAMS
"Chunky"

Literary Society, 1, 2; Commercial Club, 3, 4.

"Mindful not of herself,
But always thoughtful of others."

Annie Mae is always ready to help or do what she can to please. She'd give her head for a friend. She is not so very fond of dances, but when it comes to studies, Annie Mae sure knows her stuff! The honors which she has won as a typist are many.

WILLIAM FREDERICK WILLIAMSON
"Fred"

Wadesboro High School, 1, 2.

"Few things are impossible to diligence and skill."

Here is a boy that any class would be glad to have as one of its members. He is a friend indeed to the whole class. He is a happy-go-lucky fellow and takes things just as they come but has been very successful in school life. Here's wishing him much success and happiness in the future.

MARGARET VIRGINIA WILSON
"Peggy"

Card Fire Girls' Club, Basketball Club, 1; Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Home Economics Club, 4.

"Even the darkest hour shall see me smile."

The same yesterday, today, and tomorrow, always smiling, always jolly—that is Margaret. She is one of the friendliest girls in our class. Her popularity in school is only a beginning to the success she will score when her school days are over.

DOROTHY MAE WISTER
"Dot"

Freshman Club, 1; Camp Fire Girls, 1; Basketball Club, 1; Home Economics Club, 3; Girls' High School Club, 2.

"She may be serious
She may be gay
But she's a rare good pal
In a rare good way."

She's just "terribly nice." Sincere, lovable and kind is this gentle "Dot." She's "true blue" all the way to her heart, and is the kind that makes you see the sunny side of life. Here, there, everywhere, she's a fine old sport and, "Dot," the class of '25, wishes you the best this old world has to give.

HELENORA BARRON WITHERS
"Nonie"

Freshman Club, 1; Short Story Club, 1; Athletic Association, 1; Melody Makers, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club, 4; Wilsonian Literary Society, 4; Associate Editor Junior Observer, 4; Home Economics Club, 4.

"When Irish eyes are smiling,
Sure, they steal your heart away."

Nonie, Nonie, with eyes of blue,
You're the girl we know to true.
Pretty and popular and a regular pal,
You're the one we're backing, gal.
You love old Davidson,
And Carolina, too,
So here's to the best one,
We hope he'll get you.

MARY BARNES YANCY

Freshman Club, 1; Basketball Club, 1; Debating and Declaiming Club, 1; Debating and Literary Society, 2; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; French Club, 3; Home Economics Club, 3, 4; Wilsonian Literary Society, 4.

"Bid me discourse
And I will enchant thine ear."

Mary Barnes has the reputation of being our biggest talker, but only can readily understand the reason when he realizes that there must be some outlet for the vast store of learning and information which she has gathered and with which she always comes to the aid of her puzzled classmates. Aside from being a veritable "Walking Encyclopedia," Mary Barnes is a faithful friend, a splendid student, a lovable lass, and an altogether pleasing person.

DABNEY RANDOLPH YARBROUGH

Charlestown High School, 1; Reporter for School Paper, 1; Greenville High School, 2, 3; Basketball, 2; Literary Society, 3; Hi-Y, 3; Charlotte High School, 4; Critic Wilsonian Literary Society, 4; Rambler Staff, 4; Debating Team, 4.

"Graced art thou
With all the power of words."

Dabney has only been with us a year, but in that time he has gained much notoriety. Some one started a rumor a short while ago that he got to school on time, once, but his friends have denied this slander and it seems to have no foundation. His chief distinction, apart from his good looks and his hot line, is that he comes from the boll weevil state.

He is the only one that takes himself seriously but consoles himself with the fact that folks thought Edison a fool, and so goes his way, serene and undisturbed.

LUCY ADELAIDE YARBROUGH

"Bobbie"

Etiquette Club, 1; Current Events Club, 2; Girls' High School Club, 1, 2, 3; Economics Club, 4.

"You cannot sometimes always tell."

"Lucy" to the faculty and "Bobbie" to her school-mates, this girl has as many personalities as names! She can be as quiet and demure as Priscilla; but like Priscilla, if stern necessity demands, she can "speak right out in meeting." And when good times are in progress she needs no urge to be found among the gayest of the gay. Truly, Charlotte High loses one of its best pals when Lucy (alias Bobbie) graduates.

WILLOU YATES

"Billie"

Camp Fire, 1; Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 4.

"Fair was she to behold that maiden of seventeen summers."

Willou is loved by teachers as well as students, for she is quiet and studious in school. Yet she would hardly be recognized as such at times when she is not at school. She is mischievous and loves a little fun as well as anybody.

HELEN WEST

"Duck"

"A smile for all, a greeting glad!
A lovable way she had."

Helen is a girl who has a smile for every one and she isn't a bit stuck up. She is good-natured, kind-hearted and true. As a friend she is loyal and sincere. To know her is to love her.

THEODORE YONAN

"Skibo"

Hi-Y Club, 3, 4; Football, 3, 4; Letter Club, 3, 4.

"Skibo" came to us from Persia Via Japan, China, New York, and several hundred other places. He is an excellent tackler in football and seldom misses, especially the girls. Skibo says that they don't call them Sheiks in Persia, but he's one of them. Ted is one of the few boys who can be depended upon. If his word is once given, it holds as the link of a welded chain.

Young

LUCY MARGARITE YOUNG "Tommy"

"Still water runs deep."

Young

Lucy came to Central High from Glyn Academy, Brunswick, Georgia. In the short year that she has been with us, she has proven herself to be a girl of modesty, sweetness, and refinement. If you know her intimately, you realize that she makes the best sort of a friend. Her friendship is not the kind that is gained and lost in a day. Lucy is not one to make a big fuss or show, but she is simply trustworthy and dependable; and that is what counts most in life.

WILLIAM D. YOUNG
"Bill"

Young

Freshman Club, 1; Glee Club, 1; Kodak Club, 1; Spanish Club, 4; Studentmanship Club, 4; Business Manager Rambler, 4.

"Meth, with thee I mean to live."

Bill is just Bill. We all like a good sport and that's the reason we all like Bill. His willingness to give a helping hand and his business ability will be missed in high school, but we are sure it will be appreciated at Carolina.

ANNE JOSEPHINE ZEMAN
"Little Anne"

Freshman Club, 1; Junior High Literary Society, 1; Scribble and Scrawl Club, 3, 4; Quenovalenada Club, 4.

"Blushes may come; blushes may go,
But freckles stay on forever."

It is useless to say that Anne is smart, for that is a known fact, but I must say she is certainly "cute." Little Anne seems to put unusual "pep" into you when you go around her; she's so full of life. She possesses good, common sense, and though she is quite young, it can rightly be said of her that she is logical. Her originality has possibly won for her more friends than any other of her talents.

I. PHILLUP SPACE
"Smith"

Indian Club; President Pressing Club; Hi-Lie; African Golf Team; Quack Team; Member Greek Letter Fraternity "I Buma Cig"; Secretary Sing Sing; Preamble Staff; Assistant Editor "Rips and Splits"; Vice-President Stupid Assembly; R. O. R. C.; Pughonian Illiterate Society; Squawkestra and D— Club.

"Let every man occupy his niche; I will fill the rest."

Phillup Space is a generous lad whose mind is pure and simple—extremely simple, and is an accommodating, though bashful, fellow. In fact, he came forward only to make possible the publication of the 1925 "Snips and Cuts." Phillup is known throughout the country. As an athlete he holds the record for the hundred-yard splash on the Quack Team and as an actor he, with his brother Fillmore, have become famous in the movies as "The Great Open Spaces." He has only one failing—he is a woman hater. But perhaps this is explained by the fact that modern girls do not like to have much "Space" about their dates! We predict for Space a large place in the world and prophesy that he will be found everywhere. Although you are leaving us, Phillup Space, you will remain in the heads of all of us!

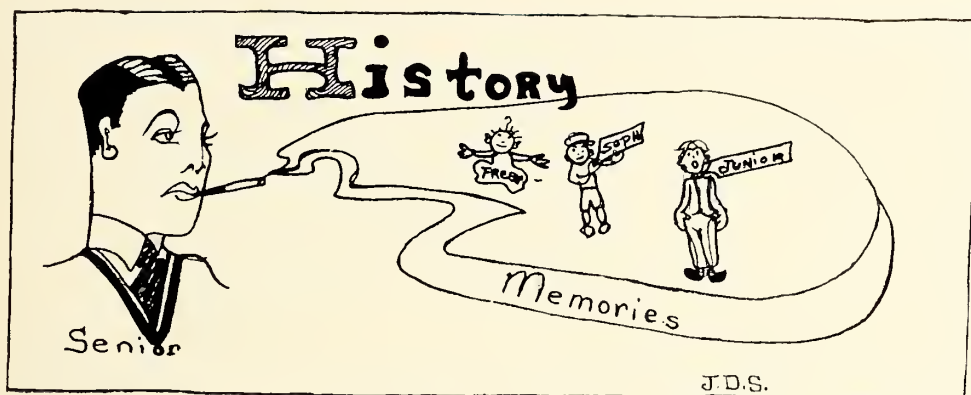

CLASS POEM

Slowly, yet quickly, the day has passed,
Spent by us. Spent by those untiringly—creating, sometimes mending.
Full four years did it last;
And now we see its ending.
We are midway! Back of us and before us lies eager youth;
Its joys and glories yet alive;
And hope and strength are ours, forsooth—
The fertile future stretching on beckons, “Strive”;
A new day is dawning.
Together the steps we climbed and now stand
Upon the summit—watching
Life’s uncertain dawn.
We see it rise hand-in-hand,
Yet its setting we watch—alone.

SAMUEL ATWELL PETTUS.

Class Poet.

CLASS HISTORY

HISTORIES as a whole are intended to inform rather than to entertain. But this special history is "of the Seniors, by the Seniors, and for the Seniors," and they are already well acquainted with the main events of their high school life. So the following "history" is to be more of a view of their high school days than a chronicle of particular events at particular times under particular circumstances.

All Seniors must first be Freshmen. One knows not why; yet the sad fact remains that this indignity must be borne as one must bear the ravages of measles. The Class of '25, being naturally buoyant and optimistic, came through this ordeal with flying colors. Not even the "uppest" of the upper classmen could repress our bubbling spirits; all taunts and dark hints of verdant freshness fell on deaf ears; and soon our pep and good-humor won a place for us in Alexander Graham High.

In our Sophomore year, we deserted long-suffering Alexander Graham High for the more imposing Central High School. On the front of our new abode was written, "Knowledge is Power"; and verily, we resolved to be very powerful ere we departed from its doors for the last time. This resolve was often weakened by the onslaught of Caesar and by the incomprehensibility (expressive word!) of Biology; in fact, had it not been for our unyielding determination, we must surely have fallen by the wayside, or committed suicide in the deep waters of Town Creek. But we persevered, and these dangers were safely passed.

Juniors! What a glorious name! It seemed incredible that in the short space of time which had elapsed since our Freshman year we had attained so high a rank. We clung with jealous care to our newly-won dignity, and withered our underclassmen with scorn, in true Junior style. We were well acquainted with that art! But along with the newly-acquired "influence" came increasingly difficult studies. We soon learned that a Junior's life is not all pleasure. Yet we found ample time to devote to pleasure; the Junior-Senior party was an example.

Then came the Senior year. We were the supreme beings of Central High School; that is, to all but the faculty. For some unaccountable reason they were unable to appreciate our superiority. We were forced to be interrogated (Oh, them interrogations!), tested, and examined along with the common herd. But never did the latter dare to question our authority, and our wounded dignity was healed. We weathered the storms caused by the selection of our ring, of our mascots, of our Senior officials, etc., with but few casualties. The day on which we chose our mascots was an unusually gay one. Little brothers, sisters, nephews, nieces, cousins, and even neighborhood "chillens" were dragged in. We staged a miniature vaudeville, with "les infants" taking the leading parts. They proved to be gifted performers and we had much difficulty in determining which should be our mascots.

Yea, Seniors, 'twas truly a great life! We are yet to leave "footprints on the sands of time," but our footprints are planted, never to be erased, in the halls of Charlotte High.

JOHN SCOTT TROTTER
Struggler-at-Law

WE, the sophisticated Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-five of Central High School, being present in body, but absent in mind, are fully cognizant of our supreme importance and of the fact that we must soon pass out. Therefore, we do ordain, enact, and establish this, our first, last, and only will and testament.

ARTICLE I

In the fervent desire to see the Student Council accomplish something, we do hereby appoint them sole executors of this will.

ARTICLE II

To our steamed and (hard)-boiled faculty we regretfully bequeath those members of our class who, because of their passionate devotion to their beloved teachers, have found it impossible to leave the realms of Central High. (There are numerous other articles which we would like to bestow upon the faculty, but after due consideration we feel that this one bequest will be all that they can possibly manage.)

ARTICLE III

To Miss Frances Beatty, we joyfully leave all our grades with the request that she keep them hidden in the dark depths of the office file. (May they never come to light.)

ARTICLE IV

To the Junior Class we bequeath:

Item 1. All Senior privileges with the hope that they will be able to discover them. (We weren't!)

Item 2. The good looks of our boys and the beauty of our girls.

Item 3. All tardy and absence slips that are marked "Excused." (These will be found especially handy when working on the annual.)

ARTICLE V

We bequeath our inexhaustible supply of conceit to the Sophomores with the exception of ALLEN HEATH. (He already has a sufficient supply to meet the needs of a student.)

ARTICLE VI

To the Freshmen we leave the right to change their color from grassy green to rowdy red!

Individual Bequests

1. BETTY BRYAN to HENRIETTA WHISNANT—her strength of arms.
2. MILDRED CAVE wills her attractiveness to FLORENCE BOATWRIGHT, her male harem to LIB PATTERSON, and her popularity to TOM GRIBBLE.
3. AVOLYN JETTON to EMMA COTHRAN—her dramatic ability.
4. MILDRED GREENLEAF to ELISE ROBERTS—her ability to calm the faculty into submission.
5. SCOTTY JOHNSON to BILLY ERWIN—her ability to take the wrinkles out of chewing gum.
6. SAM SMITH to JIMMY MCNEELY—his affection for a certain Junior.
7. BILL MATHESON and CLARENCE BRUMLEY unite in bequeathing all their excessive avoirdupois to TRAVIS BROWN with the hope that he will improve his nymph-like figure.
8. LLOYD SIFFORD to BILLY DELLINGER—his ability to manipulate intricate designs with his feet on the dance floor.
9. MARY BARNES YANCEY to PENELOPE ALEXANDER—her steady stream of gab.
10. JOHN SCOTT TROTTER to VIRGINIA GLENN—his ability to pound piano strings into fragments.
11. SAM PETTUS to THOMAS KIRKPATRICK—his noble chin.
12. DOROTHY AIKEN to ELEANOR WARD—her string of broken hearts.
13. J. WATT KIRKPATRICK to NICK DALLAS—his winning ways.
14. "SHAGGY" SHEPHERD to LOIS EDNA DOOLEY—her feeling of importance.
15. We leave BILL REDFERN's adorable eyes and irresistible smile to LARRY JOHNSON.

16. W. P. FINLEY to WADE ISON—a number of asbestos envelopes (necessary because of the “hot line” he slings to his female friends.)

17. SAM MCNINCH to NED DWELLE—his laziness. (No Junior is worthy of this honor.)

18. “PETE” SKELDING would leave her eyes to MARGARET MATHER, but she has used them so much that they would not be of any use to anyone else.

19. WALTER SPEARMAN divides his over-worked brain cells between ROBERT HOVIS and ROBERT GRAHAM.

20. To his numerous female worshipers ROBERT HARPER leaves his deepest regrets that his shrine will be no more at C. H. S.

21. To MORRISON WILLIAMS, ALSE BLANKENSHIP surrenders his pious dignity and saintly manner.

22. SALLY COTHMAN wills her baby sister, EMMA, to the KENDRICK twins.

23. ED SPEIR wills his energy to SPENCE FOSTER.

24. BETTY BRYAN and SAM PRESSON will their best-all-round qualities to “PATSY” HUTCHISON.

25. HARRY SCHWARTZ to RAY FARRIS—his gridiron reputation.

26. KATHRYN WARD wills her flaming curls to FRED ABRAMS. (Also her curling irons!)

27. The respect of the entire student body is handed down from LOUISE GARIBALDI to MARY BYERS.

28. ALICE BELL bequeaths to EVELYN PURVIANCE her unfailing store of originality.

29. JEAN CRAIG and WILLIAM YOUNG will The Rambler to the Juniors who are most capable of rambling.

30. WALTER SPEARMAN and SAM SMITH willingly bequeath their jobs on the Annual Staff to any of the Juniors who are so unfortunate as to receive them.

(Signed)

THE SENIOR CLASS,
PER JOHN SCOTT TROTTER.

WITNESSES:

1. SALLY COTHMAN,
2. WALTER SPEARMAN.

A MONOLOGUE

[Please try to stretch your imagination an' pretend I've annexed ten years along with this whole bunch of solemn, dignified-appearin' Seniors. Believe me, I wouldn't disillusion you for the world about their seemin' dignity an' solemnity.

The girl I'm roomin' with has unthinkingly picked up my old high school annual an' is absentmindedly turnin' the pages, markin' it up with a pencil an' otherwise makin' my anger rise.]

SARA, what're you doin' to that book? Give it to me immediately! Ye gods! Roommates assume such privileges! You can pick your friends an' your husband an' your other enemies but your roommate picks on you. You're such a trial. You should have been a lawyer, my dear. Then you could have taken an active part in trials openly as a profession an' you wouldn't have indulged in this blackmail type.

Why, for the cat's sake! You've drawn a moustache on ROBERT HARPER! Absentmindedly? Yes, it probably was. Tell me, Little One, did you ever do anything with your mind present? An' besides, did you ever see ROBERT HARPER? Well, this is a High School Annual an' he never wore a moustache at all in high school. It was only after he went to college an' wanted to be a cave man. He had to cut it off when he came back to Charlotte an' was made head of the secret service department of the police force. It interfered with his frequent disguises. He is always after that outlaw of a cake eater, VIC TEMPLETON, who specializes in stealin' women's hearts.

Here's VIC's picture an' here's WALTER SPEARMAN'S. He's the crooked lawyer VIC pays to get him out of trouble. Yes, he's quite innocent an' harmless lookin' here, but you ought to hear some of his speeches on "Why the lady doesn't need the heart balm."

That's HELEN DOOLEY, regular little songbird. She an' VIRGINIA GRIFFIN joined the Follies a couple of years ago. They introduce SALLY COTHRAN's songs. There's SALLY. Remember that tune, "Sam Came In and the Lights Went Out?" Yes, SALLY wrote that.

Him? That's GREGORY SMITH. Wonder if he uses Palmolive soap. His complexion could vie with any schoolgirl's. It's quite the berries—very red ones. He an' BILLY PHILLIPS joined Ringling Brothers' Circus last year. When you remember the usual size of a clown's feet I hardly need tell you which branch of the service they went into.

That's JOHN D. SHUMAN. He's the high school football coach, now, an' this is MARY BARNES YANCEY. She an' KATHERINE ARMSTRONG an' CHARLOTTE GUY an' VIRGINIA MOORE are on the faculty at a deaf an' dumb school. It's rumored that they have effected several wonderful cures an' I don't doubt it. If they couldn't get anybody to hear, nobody could.

This is J. WATT KIRKPATRICK. Charlotte's famous dancin' master, you know. It is said that he an' MRS. LOUISE GARIBALDI KIRKPATRICK originated the Spanish Mantilla.

Who? Him? That's SAM McNINCH. Last time I heard of him he was still in high school at Charlotte.

This is GRETTA WAGGONER. Somebody told me that she's takin' in washin' to support HENRY KISTLER.

Her? That's SARA SUTHERLAND. You wouldn't recognize her now. She's the leader of a bobbed haired bandit gang. It's a plenty good gang, too; NIDA DEPASS, CATHERINE FRASER, MILDRED GREENLEAF, MARYON GALLAGHER, MYRTLE CARPENTER, EVELYN JOSEPHS, SARA SANDERS, MARY EMILY DEARMON, an' GEORGE LOCKHART are among its numbers.

That's ELSIE HOWELL. She an' HELON POWELL are runnin' a curio shop. You can find anything there, from a pair of cotton stockings to a copy of "Yes, We Have No Bananas."

This is SAM PETTUS. He an' MILDRED CAVE have gone into the movies. Don't you remember when they starred in "No Rough Stuff Allowed?"

This is SAM PRESSON. He an' RUBY MILLER received their degrees as professors of psychology last year. They say it's truly thrilling an' makes a decided appeal to the unconscious—or was it subconscious?

This is MARY LEE SHEPHERD. She sailed with ED HADLEY as a missionary to Africa an' is now a vendor of ice cream an' peanuts to the little heathen. (I'll tell you in an aside that she was overheard to express an ambition for this vocation several years ago. One wonders if it was a pious desire to save their heathen souls or a gluttonous one to eat all the peanuts an', knowin' MARY LEE, one decides on the former.) We'll wager that ED HADLEY can speak the African language with fluency.

This is GEORGIA SPRATT. I haven't heard anything about her since we graduated. Oh, you know her? Teachin' Ukelele at Duke University! Say! That's the funniest thing I've heard since Sir Walter Raleigh threw down his teahound sweater for the cow to jump over the burnin' deck, as that famous Dago poem says.

An' now, rememberin' that brevity is the soul of wit, this is where ALICE does her famous quittin' act.

* This Shelby-Charlotte game was protested by Charlotte on account of the ineligibility of one of Shelby's players. Conclusive evidence was not secured at the time, however, and the game was not played over. Later sufficient evidence was brought forward and Shelby returned the western championship cup to The Observer.

Varsity Football Squad

IN RETROSPECT

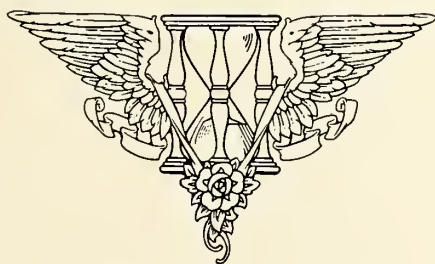

ALTHOUGH C. H. S. didn't win the championship, the team was a team that had those characteristics for which C. H. S. has always been noted—squareness, vim, and never-say-die. They didn't know what the word "quit" meant.

C. H. S. won every game but one; this being the Shelby encounter. This was in the championship series and put us out, but we played clean and hard until the final whistle.

Coach "Dick" Kirkpatrick was responsible for this. He has that seldom seen power to instill in his team a desire to play clean when getting beat, and to play with the utmost of their strength until the last.

This year the team seemed to meet Ole Lady Hard Luck, no matter which way it turned. First ROB HAYES' and VERNON AUSBAND'S boils. Then SAM and FRANK MCNINCH were cut because of their studies. SOC FOARD tried to knock a tree down with his shoulder, and only succeeded in ruining his shoulder. HAM SUTTLE'S ankle was badly sprained in the Winston encounter. On account of these injuries FRED LANIER was compelled to play with a fractured collar bone. In spite of all these misfortunes, we are offering no alibis.

Next year though, watch out! C. H. S., we're expecting you to go straight through to the championship like a streak of greased lightning. Coach "Dick," our hats off to you, and we're expecting many more championships to come to our good old C. H. S. through your help.

COACH DICK was our guiding star again this year and we certainly appreciate the time and trouble he spent on us. He has instilled fine principles of basketball in Charlotte High and these will remain long after the prowess of the team of '25 has been forgotten.

Much credit is due our splendid captain and our able manager. The good of the team stood first with them always.

LETTER GIRLS

THEO BELK, Forward

CAPTAIN BELK is right there with the goods. Her earnestness and success in captaining the team have inspired her fellow players, while her accurate shooting is a joy to the eye. We are "sho nuff" proud of you, BELK!

MILDRED CAVE, Forward

CAVE, our petite forward, is the very essence of pluck and dash in a game. She simply plays rings around her guards and by her fast work bewilders the spectators. CAVE can always be counted upon to do her best.

ELISBETH PANNILL, Forward

BET, from Badin, is a new and very important addition to our team. Ever see her let loose on those field goals? Once seen certainly never forgotten. Stick with us, BET!

DOROTHY CARSON, Center

CARSON is never flurried in a game. No matter what happens she goes on rolling up the score for C. H. S. We wish we could have her with us always.

ELIZABETH BARNETT, Guard

BARNETT is a new member of the team and has shone greatly in the time we've had her. She will probably hold down the same position next year.

FAITH DUDLEY, Guard

FAITH, following in the footsteps of the rest of the Dudleys, is a first class little guard. She is always in the right place at the right time. We are mighty glad that she has another year at C. H. S. to do us proud.

BETTY BRYAN, Guard

BRYAN, our old standby, is going strong again this year. Could we do without her? Just ask the girls. Some team is going to be lucky next year in getting our C. H. S. star. Here's luck, BETTY.

We have a fine lot of subs and we know that they will carry on splendidly for us next year.

Subs: MARGARET DIXON, MARY E. BARNETT, NELL PRESSON, FLORENCE BOATWRIGHT, CHARLOTTE GUY, FRANCES OATES, OLIVIA CURLEE and MARTHA DELANEY.

UNDER the able leadership of RALPH SMITH and the excellent coaching of Dr. Barret and Mr. Crater, the track team of C. H. S. again won that much coveted prize—the State Championship.

The team competed in five meets and was defeated in only one. The Carolina Freshmen were the lone victors over Charlotte High School.

Our team set four new state records to be the target for future meets. SMITH broke the hundred and two-twenty yard dash records. GALLAGHER broke the mile; and the relay team, composed of SMITH, O'NEILL, CHRISMAN, and ROWE added its share by shattering the mile relay record. In the 220-yard dash SMITH broke his own record which was held by himself and KOENIG, of Greensboro.

The team is expecting to add another championship this year, and with JAMES ROWE as captain, the odds seem to favor them.

COACH'S FOOTBALL TEAM

To whom must the credit for success of Charlotte High School football go? Coach Dick Krick deserves the greater share of the honor, while to the themselves is due the rest. A man that stood before us with tears coming to his eyes begged the gridders to win fair, for their Alma Mater the credit is due. Yes, the year just passed will not be forgotten by the members of the great student body. One leadership of Harry Schwan gallant eleven fought forward a great goal without the help of their twelve hundred backers.

The strongest line that ever existed in a high school in our wonderful metropolis was disbanded after the Shelby game. This was a mass of human flesh converted into a stone wall that never split throughout the season. The back field was composed of second stringers who performed nobly, but with ever the smoothness and drive of the combination of Lloyd, Frank, Sam and Sam.

The Wildcates were being visited by their third Luck. The first practice of the Basket Ball Team was held this afternoon at the Y.

We know that we are going to have a real sure nuff team this year since we have Coach Kirkpatrick for our leader. As you all know, fine material plus a fine coach is a fine team. We've got the coach and now we want all of our girls to come out so we'll have fine material! Come on, girls. I have a winning team!

DEBATING TEAMS

CHARLOTTE High School is represented in the Triangular Debating Contest by an affirmative and a negative team. The query is, Resolved, That North Carolina should accept the port terminal and steamship bill.

The affirmative is upheld by CLARENCE SULLIVAN and DABNEY YARBROUGH, who will battle Raleigh at Durham. The negative is upheld by GEORGE LOCKHART and ALSE BLANKENSHIP, who will match their skill with the representatives of Durham at Raleigh.

The purpose of the Home Economics Club is to promote greater interest in domestic science in the school and community. It is composed of all the members of Miss Gordon's and Miss Thomas' classes, who meet every month with similar clubs of various other schools of the city. The programs at these meetings are of great educational value—the subjects being Health, Economics, Conditions, etc. The club has accomplished some splendid things this year in our school and we wish them the best of luck in their future work.

EDITORIAL

We, the editors of the 1925 SLASHES AND WHACKS, have been requested to write an editorial on "Lines." There are two kinds of lines but both are used to catch fish. It makes no difference whether a girl uses a fishing line or sweet words, she usually catches a poor fish. "Those boys sure have a mean line," said little GEORGE W., after he had interviewed Mason and Dixon.

Thanks. (Don't mention it.)

ADVICE TO NEXT YEAR'S COMIC EDITOR:

1. Don't take the job.
2. Write all jokes on tissue paper so that the students can see through them.
3. Leave school before the annual is published.

THE WELL DRESSED MAN (AT CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL)

By P. F. D., PH. D., B. V. D.

The annual staff, realizing that clothes ain't what they used to be and that everyone should be taught to wear clothes (that is, properly) has appointed a committee to write an article for the annual on this subject.

This committee (composed of J. W. KIRKPATRICK, BILLY WILLIAMS, WILLIAM GREEN, and NED DWELLE) has compiled this article with the help of the latest copy of Vanity Fair. They learn from this magazine that wide pants may now be considered "Fox Paws," as the Greeks say. However, they venture an opinion of their own, which is that wide pants save considerable shoe polish. They also report that suspenders have gone into the discard with garters. Mr. DWELLE made a feeble defense in their favor but we attribute this to the fact that the pants on his new suit are so long that he has to wear them himself. Blue cheviot suits are a great favorite with the boys, but Mr. KIRKPATRICK says that the girls dislike them—"Cheviot is so dreadfully scratchy, you know."

After all this talk from the committee, we still have our own opinion, which is: if you wear the really essential articles (shirt, pants, shoes, etc.), and if you can make the teacher believe that "Somebody got my book out of my locker and I couldn't study," then we are firmly convinced that you will be a shining light in our school.

THE MODERN HOME IS THE ELECTRICAL HOME

The use of electricity has revolutionized the home just as it has revolutionized industry and commerce in America.

No industry operated with antiquated equipment and hand labor can compete with the modern plant using electricity in its various processes. Just so no home depending upon old-fashioned household equipment and human labor can compare with the thoroughly modern home in which electrical appliances are used for the various household duties and electricity takes the place of human muscle.

The thoroughly modern home, where cleanliness, brightness, and efficiency reign supreme, is the Electrical Home—and no home is modern without its equipment of electrical appliances. Household duties that were formerly dreaded as drudgery are easily and pleasantly performed through the use of the wonder worker—Electricity.

Just as the electric range, the washing machine, the ironing machine, the suction cleaner, the Kelvinator, coffee percolator, waffle iron, grill, motorized sewing machine and other appliances have banished drudgery and made housekeeping a pleasant game, just so the electric fan, the curling iron, the heating pad, the vibrator, the hair dryer, and other appliances have contributed immensely to the comfort and health and pleasure of the users of these wonder-working appliances.

The Southern Public Utilities Company handles no appliances that have not been tested and proven in its own laboratories.

"I have had playmates, I have had companions
In my days of childhood, in my joyful school days,
All, all are gone, the old familiar faces."
—Charles Lamb, "Old Familiar Faces."

But you—today—have preserved in this annual the familiar faces of your school day companions and the incidents of your school life and in after years you'll come to appreciate more and more the value of this annual and the part that we have played in preserving to you these memories. Knowing this we strive—always—to render the closest
